

Mt. Sterling Advocate.

A WEEKLY JOURNAL, IDENTICAL IN INTEREST WITH ITS OWN PEOPLE

VOLUME XVII

MT. STERLING, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, JULY 17, 1907.

NUMBER 1

IF YOU ARE A MAGAZINE READER

You may be glad to know that Our Store is the Mt. Sterling headquarters for much of the furniture that is NATIONALLY ADVERTISED. Below are a few:

Newark Pedestal Dining Tables $18 to $35	Hoozier Kitchen Cabinets $16.50 to $31.50
Streit's Solid Comfort Morris Chairs $12.50 to $25	Rustic Hickory Chairs for the Veranda $2.50 to $6.50
Featherweight Bolster Rolls $1 to $1.50	Bissell Carpet Sweepers $2.50 to $4.50
Prairie Chairs from $12 to $37.50	Heywood-Wakefield Reed and Rattan Furniture Reasonably Priced

We Are Also Headquarters For Springs, Mattresses and Iron Beds
Come and See
HARRIS & CHENAULT
THE FURNITURE MEN

Public Printing.

James E. Hughes, formerly of this city, now State Printer of the second-class, Lexington, has secured another job of State printing, two volumes of the Decisions of the Court of Appeals. Mr. Hughes has attained to prominence among printers because of his determination to go to the top. Mt. Sterling, like Lexington, the home of his adoption, should be proud of him.

Everybody's friend—Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. Cures toothache, earache, sore throat, Heals cuts, bruises, scalds, Stops any pain.

Eclipse of the Sun.

An annular eclipse of the sun took place Wednesday, but the inhabitants of North America were not able to see it. It was visible over the whole of South America and a portion of the southwestern coast of Africa. Observations were taken by the Lowell expedition, headed by Prof. Todd, of Amherst College, which is now encamped in the high deserts of northern Chile. Photographs were taken with the aid of a mammoth telescope and an especially constructed camera.

Fortifying America's Pacific Dependencies.

There is to be no delay on the part of the War Department in utilizing the appropriations made at the last session of Congress for fortifying the American dependencies in the Pacific ocean.

The appropriation included $200,000 for the construction of sea coast batteries in the Hawaiian Islands and $500,000 for the same purpose in the Philippines. For accessories $130,000 was granted, and for the construction of mining, casemates, etc., necessary for the operation of submarine mines, $200,000 was authorized. For the purchase of submarine mines and the necessary appliances to operate them an appropriation of $405,500 was made.

The reason some people have so little interest in church work is because they have so little principle.

GRAFT ALLEGED IN OWEN COUNTY.

Forty Three Indictments Returned.

ENTIRE FISCAL COURT INDICTED

The grand jury of Owen county has reported investigations into the fiscal affairs of the county. The indictments include malfeasance in office, obtaining money under false pretenses and false swearing, mutilation of county records and misappropriation of county funds. Forty-three indictments were returned.

LIST OF THE INDICTED.

M. H. Bourne, editor of the News-Herald, obtaining money under false pretenses.

W. P. Scope, former County Clerk and Sheriff, five charges in connection with his office as County Clerk.

County Judge W. P. Yancey, malfeasance in office.

Jacob Ball, member Fiscal Court, malfeasance in office.

W. E. King, member Fiscal Court, malfeasance in office.

T. O. Prather, Magistrate, malfeasance.

J. C. Jones, Magistrate, charged with malfeasance, with obtaining money under false pretenses and with false swearing.

County Clerk R. J. Walker, charged with issuing false claims against the county.

M. H. Bourne, it is charged, overdraw his salary during his term of office.

ILLEGAL FEE BILLS.

We find that each member of the present court, including the County Judge, has presented these illegal fee bills and received payment of same out of the funds of Owen county.

The State is Watching Louisville.

The political situation in Louisville has never attracted the attention of the State as it does today.

The public understands now what a contest has been carried on here for years with the foes of good government. The action of the Court of Appeals has been approved. The course of the Governor is applauded not merely by Democrats, but by the people at large.

Now Louisville itself is watched to see whether our people are capable of self-government. Party capital can be made under these conditions only by the highest public service. If the Louisville Democrats should betray the cause of good government their influence in party councils would be gone. Should the Republicans subordinate the cause of good government to party necessities, real or imaginary, their party would suffer in the State. Should the Fusionists falter in their support of Democrats, who are applying to the conduct of city affairs the principles for which the Fusionists have clamored, their splendid fight for two years will be clouded and they will fall to the position of partisan fee leaders.—Louisville Evening Post, Republican.

News has been received of the death of the Rev. Strother M. Cook, who has been for some time a missionary of the Christian Church in Africa. He once lived at Harrodsburg.

Rev. Strother Cook Dies in Africa.

Itching, torturing skin eruptions disfigure, annoy, drive one wild. Doan's Ointment brings quick relief and lasting cures. Five cents at any drug store.

Chas. Stephenson, Clintonville, Ky., says: "I cured my children of Cholera speak too highly of it as an invaluable remedy for fowls."

Sold and guaranteed by W. S. Lloyd, drugist, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

MAYOR WOODS.

Official Searching For Whisky In Local Option Town.

At Richmond, Ky., a warrant was sworn out by Moreland Creekmore, an ex-saloon keeper, charging Mayor Clarence E. Woods with taking property without felonious intent, the Mayor having opened a saloon which Mr. Creekmore had deposited near an open cellar on Third street. The Mayor alleges that he suspected whisky was in the grip, and that it had been left at the spot by prearrangement.

Mayor Woods on hearing that the warrant had been issued went before County Judge Turpin, gave bond in the sum of $100 and asked that the matter be referred to the next grand jury. N. B. Deatherage, president of the Law and Order League, signed Mayor Woods' bond.

Randolph H. Blain.

Mr. Randolph H. Blain accepted the appointment from the Governor as Judge of the City Court of Louisville.

The appointment will be heartily endorsed by the entire city of Louisville. He is an old Confederate soldier. He came to Louisville shortly after the war. He is an attorney who has won the confidence of the bar and of the public.

Mr. Blain has long been identified with the work of the organized charities of the city of Louisville.

Furthermore, he is ex-officio member of the License Board. As Judge of the City Court he sees daily presented the story of sin and suffering throughout the city.

He becomes familiar with the work of the lawless saloons and will carry from the bench to the License Board a knowledge and an experience of great value.

The Governor is to be commended for his selection, and the public is to be congratulated upon his acceptance.—Louisville Evening Post.

Thankfulness.

There was once a man who was very fond of flowers, and was able to have a garden as beautiful as he wanted it to be. It soon bloomed gloriously. But he planted a high wall all about his garden, and the neighbors and passers-by never knew what loveliness bloomed within. Poor people and sick people and discouraged people passed that way and would have been helped by the beauty and splendor of the flower garden if there had been no wall around it. So there are men and women who have a garden of beautiful thoughts in their hearts which are the outcome of beautiful experiences; but they have built a high wall of silence and reserve around themselves, and the men and women who would be helped by the testimony and by the helpful telling of experience go on their way uncheered and unhelped.

What we have of experience is for our brother, and when we sing the new song which the Lord hath given us "many shall see it, and shall trust in the Lord."—Selected.

No More Free Lunches.

At a meeting of the Saloonkeepers' Protective Association in Maysville it was decided by a unanimous vote to do away with all free lunches. Some time ago they raised the price of "growlers" to ten cents. They claim that there was no money in free lunches as those who got the benefit of them were the ones who usually bought only one glass of beer.

Adam's sin shows us how foolish it is to do a thing just because some one asks us to.

HAZELRIGG & SON, Dry Goods, Carpets, Etc.

Look at their French Voiles in exquisite colorings, splendid quality, and the best value ever offered. Three Hundred Yards of GIVERNAN'S black 36-inch Taffetas at OLD PRICES as long as they last. Wear like Buckskin.

Fine Table Linens and Napkins for fine functions a specialty.

Sole agents for Black Cat Hosiery for both women and children. The best hosiery on the continent at the price.

Royal line of extra Super Ingrain Carpets at LAST YEAR'S PRICES. Rugs and Druggets in Brussels, Axminster and Sloan's Imperial.

Mattings in great Variety. Hazelrigg & Son have no SHODDY in any of their departments. They deal in only dependable, good goods. There's no kick coming should you buy goods of

HAZELRIGG & SON.

Selling Liquor to an Inebriate.

Every now and then we see in the Lexington papers such a notice as the following: "On the charge of habitual drunkenness — was fined $50 and costs and on account of his inability to pay the fine was sent to the workhouse where he will have to serve — days." — has been in the Police Court several times before on the charge of being drunk, and each time he was given another chance. He begged for another lease on freedom yesterday but was refused."

We do not remember in late years ever having seen such a notice followed by another that said: "Such and such a saloon keeper was then arraigned on the charge of selling liquor to an habitual drunkard, and was given the fine for this offense imposed by the statute." The statute imposes a fine of $50 for each offense.

This law has been a dead letter in our community for a long time. The ordinance that says, "Any person who shall sell any liquor to a minor, shall be subject upon conviction to a fine of $50 and costs for each offense," was for a long time also a dead letter. This is beginning, however, to be observed in Lexington, due in some measure to the efforts of the probate officer of the Louisville Court. The Mayor has signified his willingness to the probate officer to revoke a saloon license whenever it could be proven that the law against selling liquor to minors was being violated, and at least one saloon keeper forfeited his license after indictment by the grand jury for this offense. There is no reason why a State law, re-enforced by city ordinance, prohibiting the sale of liquor to an habitual drunkard, should not be enforced; there is every reason why it should be enforced. A drunken man is always a dangerous man. The habitual drunkard is a menace to the women and children and men whom he meets on the streets or on highways. Promiscuous shooting of pistols on our country roads by drunken men is too frequent and is full of danger. It is possible that a saloon keeper may sometimes sell liquor to an habitual drunkard without knowing the fact; it is not at all probable. We presume there is no man, woman or child, of observing age, who cannot count in his acquaintance at least one habitual drunkard, whom he has seen on the streets or country roads, time after time, in a state of intoxication. If every child knows the habitual drunkard, the saloon keeper can certainly inform himself on the subject.—Lexington Herald.

MONEY FOR SOLDIERS.

Apportionment Due Fourth Kentucky Volunteers and Two Cavalry Companies.

Capt. C. C. Calloun has paid over to Gov. Beckham the sum of $57,629.11 collected from the United States Government, due to Kentucky soldiers of the Spanish-American War. Gov. Beckham will distribute the money.

Field and band, Middleboro, Mass.	$ 8 65
Company A, Middleboro and Pikeville	2,867 94
Company B, Greening and Maysville	1,679 79
Company C, Beattyville	2,419 94
Company D, Jackson	1,948 67
Company E, Morehead and Burnside	1,296 64
Company F, Olive Hill and Grayson	5,048 77
Company G, Booneville	5,231 00
Company H, Hartsville	5,577 58
Company I, Albany	3,359 56
Company K, Pikeville	3,607 86
Company L, Huston	2,659 15
Company M, Barboursville	2,679 67
Total	$13,982 63

CAVALRY.
Troop A, Barboursville	$1,750 00
Troop B, Salyersville	1,750 00
Total	$3,500 00
Grand Total	$17,482 63

New Enterprises in Lexington.

Within a period of about five months the following business enterprises have been started in Lexington:

The Bluegrass Tobacco Factory erected a $45,000 factory employing about 200 laborers.

The American Tobacco Company a $65,000 factory, will employ about 150 hands; and the Shelbyville Tobacco Company a warehouse employing about 25 men.

Standard Cigary Company about 15 men, and the Petty Stemmy employs about 140 laborers.

The new wholesale dry goods house of Woolfork & Thompson will be opened in a short time. This handsome new four-story building will cost about $35,000.

I. W. Kennett has established a wholesale furniture store.

The Boyce & Crogan Lumber Company has rebuilt its saw and planing mill and works about 65 laborers.

The Ashland Broom Company, J. L. Clark has opened a large woven wire factory.

A new brickyard is being constructed to make red and white pressed brick.

The plans for a five-story warehouse have been made by the Vandoren Hardware Company.

The Combs Lumber Company has recently added a mantle department.

Excursion Season Opens.

First excursion to Cincinnati via Q. & C. will be Sunday, April 14, and every other Sunday thereafter through the month of October.

Advocate Publishing Company

Entered in the Postoffice at Mt. Sterling as second-class mail matter.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: $1.00
If not paid within SIX MONTHS, $1.50
Cash must accompany order. No advertisement inserted until paid for.

J. W. HEDDEN, Editors and Publishers
B. W. TRIMBLE

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Governor: S. W. HARRIS.
For Attorney General: J. K. HENDRICK.
For Superintendent, Public Instruction: M. O. WILKINSON.
For Commissioner of Agriculture: J. W. NEWMAN.
For Lieutenant Governor: SOUTH TRIMBLE.
For Auditor: HENRY B. WORTH.
For Secretary of State: HENRY VERILAND.
For Treasurer: RUBY LAFFOON.
For Clerk Court of Appeals: JAMES B. CHENNEY.
For United States Senator: J. C. W. BECKHAM.
For Representative: J. WILL CLAY.

Announcement.

CHIEF OF POLICE.

I am a candidate for Chief of Police of Mt. Sterling, subject to the action of the Democratic party. I will, if elected, continue to do my duty as an officer in the future as I have in the past. Your support respectfully solicited.
R. F. MAXWELL.

WORTHY.

What the Democratic administration of public affairs in Kentucky has done for the Common schools of the State, and is doing as is evidenced by the action just taken by Superintendent J. H. Faqua in declaring a per capita for them for the coming school year of $3.40, is one of the incentives under which its nominees will go before the people in the November election. This per capita is the largest declared by the Department of public Instruction.

PROSPERITY.

That Democratic administration of public affairs in the State of Kentucky for the last seven years has been for the best interests of all the people of the State, is evidenced by the influx of foreign capital during the last few years seeking investment. The public records will bear out the statement that more money has poured into Kentucky during the last half dozen years than for a quarter of a century before; that more firms and corporations with large capital have been organized within the State by citizens of other States in conjunction with citizens of Kentucky; and that more of the fortunes made in Kentucky have been invested within the State than during any similar period in the history of the State. That nothing is more chary than money seeking investment is a well known fact.

ENFORCE THE LAW.

After two fights in Lexington in which two lawyers carrying pistols shot at other men and after one man was killed Circuit Judge Parker spoke plain words to the grand jury:

"I want you to go fully into these disgraceful events. I think it would be far better to stop investigating other charges if it is necessary so that something can be done to enforce the law."

"I do not like to say it, gentlemen, but I doubt if there is any place in the country that has so little regard for the laws as the people in this very county of Fayette."

He told the grand jury to look well into the charges made against gambling.

He said in part: "The law must be enforced and I would impress upon your minds that you should look well into the saloon closing law. I feel that everything in this regard is being done that can be done, but I want you to root out the various evils which have their hold on this city."

Investigate fully the occurrences of last Saturday and place the blame where it belongs. I am unalterably opposed to any man carrying a weapon of any kind and if it is possible to be done it must be stopped."

READY FOR THE FAY.

The State ticket is preparing for an active campaign, asking that the ticket be elected on the principles of Democracy. Declaring against centralization, favoring a reduction of the tariff and opposing the trust methods. The affairs of the State are an open book.

A Democratic administration is constructing a capitol building that will invite comparison with that of any State in the Union and that without increasing the rate of taxation.

The school per capita has been increased to $3.40, leaving a balance in the Treasury to the credit of this department.

The temperance question has been strengthened by the enactment of the County Unit Bill and additional measures helpful to the cause will follow. The "lid" is on, in Louisville and other cities and the moral sentiment of the State is being led by the Democratic administration.

The people know that things far beyond their fondest dreams are being realized and at the present aggressive rate Kentucky will soon be listed among the first in morals and the people will press onward with that party that leadeth to victory.

MOUNTAINS DEMOCRATIC.

It appears to the public that the Republican nominee for Governor, Willson, will exhaust the greater part of his powers trying to persuade the mountain people to vote for him for Governor. Now, Willson had just as well stay away from that section for the mountain voters are unalterably prohibitionists and are pledged to the party that stands for relief from this terrible curse that binds them. We look for a mighty majority from that section.

We announce the candidacy of R. F. Mastin for re-election as Chief of Police of this city. He has been Chief for 18 months. So far as we have heard his vigilance, enforcement of law and conduct as a citizen and officer have been commendable. For over twenty years he has been on the force, and is in a position to know what ought to be corrected.

ONE MAN DID IT.

If one man could be the instrument through whom a $15,000.00 depot will be erected, what wonderful things could be accomplished by a united effort.

New Trustees.

Thomas F. Triplett and Millard F. O'Rear have resigned as Trustees in School District No. 14. Superintendent Goodwin has appointed W. S. Hamilton and John S. Wyatt to the vacancies.

W. E. Bean is crippled in his right ankle as the result of a horse stepping on him.

THE Mt. Sterling National Bank

MT. STERLING, KENTUCKY

Capital.....$50,000
Stockholders Liability.....$50,000
Surplus.....$25,000

Conducts a general banking business along all lines of legitimate banking.

Money to loan at all times at reasonable rates.

Careful and prompt attention to all business.

The patronage of individuals and firms respectfully solicited

DAVID HOWELL, Cashier.

Indictments Disappear.

The indictments in the Franklin Circuit Court against acting Governor W. S. Taylor, Caleb Powers acting Secretary of State, Charles Finley and others have disappeared from the Franklin Circuit Court. There is no clew as to what has become of the papers.

Out of Business.

Under the modern Louisville administration 300 rooms formerly used for the operation of crap games were raided Sunday and as a result of this movement 900 gamblers are out of business. Gambling will stop in Louisville under the present Democratic administration.

NOW COAL

When prices are the lowest is the time to buy

We have it in all the best grades. Feed, Corn, Hay, etc. Our prices will be found exactly correct and you can save money by buying now.

McDonald Bros.

Phone 3 Mt. Sterling, Ky.

The Electric Theatre on Main street deserves a liberal patronage. The Stereopticon Views are the best to be seen. Good music during the entire time. Show opens every evening promptly at 6:30. Admission only 5c to all.

On Hawkins' Branch, Menefee county, on last Sunday after Rev. George Daugherty had preached a sermon it is reported Hood Poynter passed by and struck the preacher in the temple with a stone felling him to the ground, leaving him in a critical condition. Poynter is in the Menefee jail.

Ladies see our $1.98 Oxfords, regular $2.50 values.
Punch & Graves.

Republican Campaign.

The Republican State Campaign Committee has been appointed and consists of the following:

Albert Scott, of Louisville, will be chairman and in general control.

A. S. Barnett, of Hartford, secretary and in charge of details of organization.

John C. Wood, of Mt. Sterling, will direct the bureau of literature and speakers.

The load seems lighter—Wagon and team wear longer—You make more money, and have more time to make money, when wheels are greased with

Mica Axle Grease
—The longest wearing and most satisfactory lubricant in the world.
STANDARD OIL CO.

Kentucky Crop Report.

The first half of June was quite wet, raining nearly every day. Corn planting, especially in lowlands, that was already late, was still further retarded by these excessive rains. Early planted corn suffered for cultivation and many fields became foul with grass and weeds. The latter half was almost ideal, and gave farmers a splendid opportunity to get their wheat in the shock in good condition, and wage a war on the weeds that were rapidly taking their corn fields.

The acreage of corn is a little short of last year, owing to the unfavorable weather. Much lowlands would have been planted under favorable conditions. The corn crop is not up to the standard, causing a great deal of replanting and making the crop very irregular. The wheat crop improved materially during the month, but will fall short of an average crop. While the yield will be less than an average, the berry promises to be very fine. The prospective yield is 16 per cent. less than the 1906 crop. Oats promise three-fourths of the 1906 crop. Many counties are almost a failure and only a few have full crop.

Rye promises some better, but considerably below last year. Hemp is nearly up to last year in acreage and condition. Burley tobacco is reported 10 per cent. short of last year in acreage, owing to scarcity of plants and labor. Much of this was planted late in June and will depend largely upon a late fall if it makes a good yield. The dark district has fallen off 25 per cent. in acreage for want of plants to set a full crop. Much of this is also late. Grasses are doing fairly well. The high price and scarcity of seed cut the acreage of stock peas. Potatoes promise a full crop. The fruit crop, except berries, will be a very short one. Near a full crop of sorghum and millet. On the whole the outlook is not so gloomy as appeared some weeks ago.

Mr. Harry Linthecum, proprietor of the corner grocery, is very much elated over the opening of his meat department Monday. The favorable comments were highly gratifying and Mr. Linthecum is encouraged to believe that our people will buy only the best.

To Greet the President.

By arrangement 100 river boats will greet the President and escort him on his trip down the Mississippi river in October.

Returns to the Pulpit.

Rev. Burris A. Jenkins, of Lexington, who sometime ago resigned the Presidency of the Kentucky University at Lexington has recovered his health and accepted the pastorate of the Elmwood Christian church, Kansas City, Mo., one of the wealthiest churches of that city. Rev. Jenkins' many friends here will be delighted to know that he has been restored to perfect health.

120 brooms worth 20c—for Saturday's Special Attraction at 9c each. Sale starts at 10 a. m. Only 1 broom to each customer and not delivered at this price.

Roth Bros.' Cash Grocery.

Panama $7.50 Hats, $4.98.
Panama $5.00 Hats, $3.48.

Punch & Graves.

July Court.

Big run of cattle, fully 3,000 head. The quality was fair and trade good. The best feeding cattle sold at 4c with light weight stuff at 3 1/2 to 4c. Yearlings at $4.25 to $4.50. Heifers at 3 1/2 to 4c, the latter price for fat stuff. Cows at 3 to 3 1/2c. Bulls 3 to 3 1/2c. About 1,000 sheep on the market and the prices asked were from $5 to $6 per head. Good crowd at the pens with some buyers from other states. Cattle changed hands in a hurry and a great deal of business done during the day.

SALES.

Henry Lemastem sold 16 about 500 lb. steers to Wm. Byrd at $22.50 per head.
Stafford Bros. sold 40 650 lb. heifers to Wm. Taylor, of Clark county, at 3 1/2c.
Noah Lyons sold 7 800 lb. steers to Thos. Fox at $4.25.
Henry Hall bought 12 500 lb. yearlings of J. W. Napier at $4.50.
Kelly Murphy sold 16 725 lb. heifers to Mr. Laughlin, of Paris, at $3.75 and 7 900 lb. cows at $3 and 7 900 lb. cows at $3.25 to same party.

Combs & Co. sold a bunch of 800 lb. steers to J. P. Highland at $4.25.

Green Allen sold 8 650 lb. heifers to C. C. Kokenodler, of Carlisle, at 3 1/2c.

J. W. Deboarde sold 15 about 400 lb. heifers to Hazard Downing at $15 per head.

Combs & Radfiff sold 6 1030 lb. cows at $3.25 to Sam Laythrum, of Bath county.

Bad Barnes sold 6 850 lb. steers to J. P. Highland at 4 1/2c.

Little Bros. sold 2 700 lb. yearlings at 4 1/2 and 10 600 lb. heifers at 3 1/2 to B. C. Clark, of Bath.

Barnes & Co. 10 900 lb. cows to Jno. Connell, of Carlisle, at 3c.

H. C. Scribner sold a bunch of 900 lb. steers to Warren Rogers, of Bourbon county, at 3c.

Arnett & Co. sold 9 1,000 lb. cows to Maule Bros. at $3.25.

Milt Jenkins sold 22 550 lb. steers to Lawless Gatewood at $4.25.

Jas. McDonald bought 9 1,000 lb. cows from Henry Murphy at $3.25.

Kelly Murphy sold 14 600 lb. heifers to Lindsey Stull, of Jessamine county, at 3 1/2c.

Little Bros. sold 25 350 lb. steers to Watt Gay, of Clark, at $3.25.

Noah Lyons sold a bunch of 950 lb. cows to J. T. Denton, of Lexington, at $3.25.

Alvin Myers sold a bunch of 1,000 lb. steers to Warren Rogers at $4.25.

W. M. Lincus sold 15 800 lb. heifers to Sam Laythrum at $3.65.

J. H. Day sold 12 600 lb. heifers to Geo. Barry at $3.40.

Chas. Duff sold 10 750 lb. steers to W. G. Whaley at 4c.

A. T. Patrick sold 25 425 lb. heifers to Joseph Carroll, of Clark, at $3.30.

HORSES AND MULES.

Horses were brisk and a good many buyers here. A lot of sales were made at good prices.

No mules on the market or we had better say so few, that we can not give any sales.

Arrests in Lexington.

On Sunday the police in Lexington arrested three persons for selling beer on Sunday—Mrs. J. B. Crouch, who has a saloon on Constitution Street, Barker and Wyatt on same street.

Elder J. D. Hunter, of Cannel City, is in the city. He is Deputy State Counsel of Cannel City district of the order of Jr. O. U. A. M. His object is to institute a council in Mt. Sterling. He distributes Bibles, American flags and preaches the gospel according to the belief of the Church of God.

Small Pox.

Rowan county has been quarantined against Morgan county because of the 30 cases of small pox that is reported there.

CORRESPONDENCE.

GRASSY LICK.

Harvesting wheat is finished. Crops are looking fine.

B. T. Carl sold to H. L. Greene 12 fat heifers at 3 1/2c.

Harry Reice is visiting C. W. Bush and other relatives here.

Will Mason was at Winchester Friday and Saturday.

On Sunday Bessie and Laura Blount were at Mt. Sterling.

Little Miss Francis Hurt, of Mt. Sterling, was the attractive guest of James Mason and family last week.

Miss Dora Swango organized a missionary meeting for young folks with 14 members, with Mary Peggs as President; Pierce King Vice President; Bessie Blount Secretary; Dora Blount Secretary; Working Committee—Ethel G. and Clara Carl, Russia Wade, Nellie Ramsey, Mary D. Mason, Mary Dean, Johnnie and Herbert Karick, Clarence King and Wm. Buch.

Sanford Shannon and wife, Clark Shannon and sister and Miss Mary Dean visited Mr. and Mrs. John Peggs.

Protracted meeting begun at Wade's Mill Sunday night. Bro. Stone and Bro. Minard are the preachers.

Rev. C. F. Oney preaches here next Sunday.

DONALDSON, CLARK COUNTY.

Crops are looking fine after the much needed rain.

School begun here Monday, with Miss June Barnes as teacher.

Frank Pendleton is still living.

Mr. Fred Cracraft, of Wades Mill, has a severe case of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Bird Kidd is very ill.

Dudley Wade has returned home from Sam Turley's. He will return to Ohio after a visit at home.

Cart riding is all the style down here, also horseback riding.

Mrs. Campbell is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Star were with their daughter, Mrs. Wade, Sunday.

Mrs. Harvey Johnson, of Middletown, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dea Stull.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mullican visited at Albert Reed's. Also Mr. Reed's sister from Ohio.

Miss Florence Curry, of Grassy Lick, has returned home after a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Alice Turley.

Laurence Gillaspie is slowly improving after an attack with a wild horse.

Rev. Baber, from Willmore, is holding a tent meeting on the Duley pike, near Wades Mill.

GOING AWAY? $3,000 insurance against death and $25 a week "while laid up" caused from travel accidents at less than 1 1/2c a day. Investigate before you start.
H. G. HOFFMAN,
General Agent.

Reunion.

On Sunday W. C. Moore had a family reunion of his father's and mother's families. Six of his father's brothers and one sister were present, the entire kinship present numbering twenty-three.

Williams' Carbolic Salve With Ar-nica and Witch Hazel.

The best Salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Tetters, Chapped hands, and all skin eruptions. It is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Free by druggists. Sold by Thos. Kennedy, 24-1/2c.

Ed. J. King, of Chicago, is now engaged in erecting the organ at the Christian Church. The work will be finished by the last of next week.

Next Saturday concert all day. Ice Cold Lemonade free to our customers. The coolest store in town. The Ideal place to deal.

Roth Bros.' Cash Grocery.

Is the Fault With the Bar or the Public?

It is a familiar expression that two lawyers will grow rich where one will starve—a polite form of expression for the harsher implication which underlies it. It must be admitted there is in every community a class of would-be lawyers whose sole aspiration is to encourage litigation, to magnify to some aggrieved individual his supposed wrongs for the sole purpose of provoking a lawsuit, when a few kindly words would prevent all controversy and leave friends where he would leave embittered foes. It must also be admitted there is in every community a class of lawyers who, to preserve a semblance of respectability, employ the acme of despicability, the "runner," the "solicitor," the "ambulance chaser," the "ghoul" to work up a suit and secure his principal's employment. Unfortunately this class is increasing rather than diminishing. While it is true they represent only the lower side of the professional life, the commercial fragment, they serve, nevertheless, to drag down the standing of the entire profession. Against those the bar itself, it seems to us, should wage an unceasing war of extermination.

It is a painful admission, but the prevalence of a class of lawyers whose practice is limited to the arts of chicanery and trickery was never so great as it is today. With the advent of this class of lawyers has come, too, a growing disrespect for the time-honored ethics of the profession, followed by a species of practices that must inevitably result in irreparable mischief to the Bar of the State. Every profession or organization, lay as well as ecclesiastical, is gauged more by the character and standing of the bad than the good elements which compose it. As one hypocrite in a church has more influence for mischief than the twelve apostles would have for good, so one crooked lawyer can do more to break down the reputation of a bar than a dozen men of character can do to maintain it.

No man's character is safe in a community where he operates. No enterprise, public or private, but is open to any predatory rascal he may care to make. No community can enjoy rest and tranquility where he is present. He is a fly in the ointment, a Mordecai at the gate, a drought in a summer, a pestilence in winter, in short, the one thing altogether not desired. It ought to be made a cause of dishonor for a lawyer to seek employment. The Association, now in session, could do no better than adopt a resolution similar to that adopted by the American Bar Association at a recent meeting.—Lexington Herald, July 12.

RELEASED.

Not Responsible For Death.

J. R. Magoffin, the aged blind man, of Lexington, and his cousin, Jas. Moberly, of Harrodsburg, who were arraigned for killing Jas. Peel in Lexington on July 7, from James Burke, of the firm Burke Bros., saloonists. She said she had come for the purpose of swearing out a warrant of arrest. Burke was at once arrested and gave bond until the case could be considered in Police Court Friday.

Rain.

A fine rain fell on Thursday, bringing relief to growing crops.

NO GRAFT

Or No Money. Franciscans Have to be Good If They Want Funds.

San Francisco has been told by Eastern banks and capitalists that it must drive out grafters and put an end to strikes, boycotts and anarchy, otherwise it cannot borrow money in the East to rebuild its 28,000 structures shaken down by the earthquake and burned. New Yorkers are unwilling to advance more capital under the present conditions.

San Francisco will need $150,000,000 in the next three years for the rebuilding of the city. Its loss in buildings was $500,000,000. It received only $180,000,000 in insurance. The banks had $160,000,000 on deposit when the disaster came. The greater part of this has been loaned upon good security for the rebuilding of the city. Four millions more have been borrowed from Eastern banks.

The people of San Francisco have become aroused to the cold, hard conditions in finance which confronts them and are demanding independence from the rule of graft and tyranny. Up until there has been apathy upon the part of the majority of that class of citizens, which elsewhere would be looked to for an uprising against corruption and business paralysis caused by the turmoil.

The Eastern bankers had learned that the Mayor of San Francisco was under indictment on charges of graft, the members of the Board of Supervisors had confessed that they had been bribed over and over again, the Chief of Police was in sympathy with and protected the lawless element among strikers, the Sheriff refused to aid the prosecuting officers, the heads of most of the important commissions conducting municipal affairs were known grafters and citizens who were officials in many public utility corporations were under indictment for bribery.

Sire of $30,000 State Winner Sold for $15.

One of the greatest and most successful thoroughbred sires, Inspector B., was sold on the public square in Lexington on Thursday for $15. The old stallion will be gelded and spend the remainder of his days by the side of a mule pulling a plow. His owner, Col. Milton Young, the master of McGrathiana Stud decided to sell him to the highest bidder. He sired Endurance By Right, a brilliant state winner of sixteen races, for which the late W. C. Whitney paid $30,000 as a two-year-old.

Hot Time.

In Cynthia a permit was granted on Saturday to erect a tent on public square for temperance meetings. Later the Council rescinded the order. In the meantime the tent had been partially put up. Mayor Ashbrooke swore out a warrant, resulting in the arrest of Revs. Plennmons and Clark, pastors of the Baptist and Methodist Churches, and seven other prominent citizens who were putting up the tent, on charge of obstructing public highways. Immediate trial was given and the prisoners were dismissed. The temperance forces are in control.

Change of Name Recommended.

At a joint meeting of the committees from the Board of Trustees of Kentucky State College and Kentucky University held Thursday the representatives decided to recommend to the boards that the name of the A. & M. College of Kentucky be changed to that of "State University, Lexington, Kentucky."

Rev. Mark Collis, pastor of the Broadway Christian church, was elected chairman and Judge W. T. Lafferty, of Cynthia, secretary. Nothing was said regarding the change of the name of K. U.

Kentucky University was represented by Mark Collis, W. H. Cassell, and Judge J. H. Hazelrigg.

THE LINE BETWEEN

Stein-Bloch and Hamburger Clothing

And other ready-to-wear clothing is so great that even poorest judges of merchandise can at once see the difference, to say nothing of the discriminating buyer, who long ago learned that all things are classified and that all standard goods are labeled. The labels on the Stein-Bloch and Hamburger Suits stand for a half century's work, worry, system, and knowing how; to make and keep them the foremost ready-to-wear clothes in the world. They stand today in a class that is strictly their own, and of their own making, they are different, and if they were not different they would not be here; and again, if Walsh Bros. could not sell different clothes from other stores, they would not be selling clothes. To the man who lives in this great country, who is carrying the high-priced tailor's burden, or shoddy tailor's raiment, we know there is a reason for your sorrow. Perhaps some years ago you bought ready-to-wear clothes from some unscrupulous store who cared not for fit, style, fabric, or you, and you have since camped out. We want you; we want you to return to ready-to-wear clothes, to come to our store and see the great progress your country has made in the tailoring of ready-to-put-on apparel. It is worth your while, and the more discriminating you are the more capable you will be of appreciating the art of our offerings. COME TO-DAY.

The great Stein-Bloch Suits and Outing Suits in the new English sack coats, made with broad, elegant shoulders, new style set pockets, new style cuffs on sleeves, with deep gorge collars and broad lapels, closing with 3 buttons that are set very close together; new 3 and 4-button vests with or without flaps on pockets; and the latest cut trousers that are especially tailored for spring and summer wear. The greys, blues, browns and tans which are so popular this season in fabrics for men's clothes show up beautifully in the English Sack. Stein-Bloch Suits as low as

$18 and up to $30.

The celebrated Hopkins Straw Sailors and Panamas are now on sale. We show the only line of straws coming direct from the makers and the latest line in the city. The new bleached enameled process used by the Hopkins people gives life and luster to the straw. Their styles are authority and their hats are sold by the best stores everywhere. We have the sole agency for Hopkins Straws and Panamas here.

The Newport Sack, the Sagamore Sack are two of the latest creations from the tailor shops of Hamburger. These garments are swell things for young fellows who want extremes in their clothes. The fabrics are the latest things shown in the New York market, and have just come in by express. Gun Club Checks, Chain Weaves and Shadow Plaids in Racine Velour Cassimeres. The fabric here used in these garments has no equal for its shape-retaining qualities, the broad shoulders and curved lines of Hamburger's garments rounds out the figure of the youth as no other clothing can.

SUITS FROM $15 to $30.
OUTING COATS and TROUSERS, $10 to $20

The Manhattan Shirt, the Eclipse Shirt and our own Custom Goods offer a collection that comprises every want of man in shirts. The colorings, the combination weaves, the interlining of stripes and bars, the bold plaids cover every inch of shirt thought. We carry all sizes and sleeve lengths. We show the separate collar and attached collar styles with plain or turn-back cuffs, shirts coat open front or open back. Our large collection enables us to fit and suit every customer. A look here will satisfy.

J. & M. Shoes, Eclipse Shoes, W. L. Douglas Shoes

TRUNKS. SUIT CASES. TELESCOPES.

The House of Walsh Bros.

Selling Only the Best.

MT. STERLING, KENTUCKY.

New Depot.

E. P. Goodwin, division superintendent of the C. & O., was in our city on Thursday to make observations and investigations concerning a new passenger depot. He is reported to have said that a depot would be built on Mayville street. He recognized the necessity of such and was very courteous. Definite plans will be adopted later. His coming was in response to communications, especially through Mr. W. A. Samuels.

Trains For Blue Grass Fair.

Arrangements have been completed with all the railroads in the State of Kentucky for a rate of half fare for the round trip to the big Blue Grass Fair at Lexington, the week of August 12 to 17.

Mr. Russell Johnson left for Gage, Oklahoma, Tuesday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Lula Howard. Mr. Johnson will be absent thirty days. Charlie Eskridge will be in charge of his business during his absence.

Dormitory Blown Down.

On Thursday heavy wind blew down a large new dormitory nearly completed at the Reform School near Lexington. Nine workmen were caught in the wreck, one of whom was Wm. Alfrey, of this city, who was not seriously hurt. Only three had to be taken to hospital.

At Detroit, Mich., a night clerk at a hotel picked up a roll of money, $10,000, which Chas. Smith had dropped in the bath room. Smith rewarded him with $3.00.

RESOLUTIONS

Of Mt. Sterling Tent No. 45, K. O. T. M. on the Death of Sir Knight W. T. Moore.

At a called meeting of Mt. Sterling Tent No. 45, Knights of the Macabees, July 14, 1907, a Committee on Resolutions, composed of Sir Knights H. B. Kinsolving, M. R. Hainline and Chas. B. Stephens were appointed by the Commander to draft resolutions expressive of the sentiment of this tent in regard to the death of Sir Knight W. T. Moore. Resolution reported by the Committee and unanimously adopted is as follows:

"WHEREAS, It has pleased the Great Commander of the Universe to remove from our earthly Tent and fellowship our highly esteemed Sir Knight and brother, W. T. Moore, and initiated him into the sublime Knighthood of our Great Camp above, therefore, we, his surviving brother Knights, hereby record our deep sense of sorrow in his loss to our Tent and here wish to testify to his sterling worth and splendid rectitude of conduct as a citizen and his true devotion and loyalty to our cause and Tent as a Knight of the Macabees of the World, and we hereby tender our profound sympathy to his sorrowing family. That these resolutions be recorded in the record book of our Tent and published in the Mt. Sterling Advocate and Gazette.

H. B. Kinsolving, Chm.

M. R. Hainline,

C. B. Stephens,

Committee.

HAZEL GREEN ITEMS.

(From the Herald.)

John Brasley's child, 3 years old, fell in a spring on Laurel and drowed.

Judge Center was in this section stirring up the road overseers. That the Helecheva is greatly improved. [Thank you, Judge.—Editor.]

Mr. and Mrs. Dwyer, of Quincy, Ill., E. P. Maggard and daughter, Poplar Plains, Mrs. Reid, of Richmond, Mrs. D. Hurst and children, of Millers.

Mrs. Ida Taulbee Johnson, died July 7. She leaves a husband and six little children. Her father, Dr. Jno. Taulbee, who had moved to Oklahoma, was with her for a few weeks.

Rev. E. G. B. Mann conducted quarterly meeting here.

SPRUCE, W. VA.

(From two Little Kentucky girls.)

We are Kentucky girls and will try to visit the ADVOCATE office once a year. We have been here five months and like it fine. We think of our old Kentucky homes in Montgomery county. The weather is so cold here we can't wear white dresses and plant gardens like we always did in Kentucky. This is the 12th of July and it is cold enough to snow. We had a snow in Sprucewood the 16th of April 6 feet deep, but did not freeze the two little Kentucky girls. Publish this letter and we will call and see you next year.

Your little friends,

[The writers failed to sign their names.—Ed.]

Big Percentage of Crop Pooled.

On Wednesday J. A. Everett, of Indianapolis, President of the American Society of Equity, spoke to the Burley tobacco growers at the Court-house in Winchester. He urged the necessity of solidifying the organization of all the districts so as to be able to form a close pool of all the tobacco.

CATTLE SALES.

Col. Gatewood sold 70 head of cattle, average about 1300 lbs., to C. C. McDonald at 6c.

W. B. Greene shipped a carload of lambs and one of cattle to Cincinnati last week. The lambs brought 6c.

DISTRICT, COUNTY AND CITY OFFICIAL DIRECTORY.

Congressman
E. A. HARRIS, Prestonsburg.
State Senator
C. F. HUNTER, Winchester.
Representative
J. W. CLAY, Mt. Sterling.
Circuit Court
Chief Clerk
A. W. TOLSON, Middlesboro.
Commonwealth Attorney
ALEX. CONNER, Orangeville.
Master Commissioner
JNO. A. JUDY, Mt. Sterling.
Circuit Clerk
RICH. HUNT, Mt. Sterling.
Commissioner of Jury Fund
P. B. TURNER, Mt. Sterling.
Recorder
J. W. CLAY, Mt. Sterling.

TERMS
 3rd Monday in January
 2nd Monday in April
 1st Monday in September

COUNTY COURT
 8th Monday in September
 1st Monday in December

QUARTERLY COURT
 Tuesday after 1st Monday.
FISCAL COURT
 1st Tuesday in April and October.

COUNTY OFFICERS.
Judge
County Attorney
County Clerk
Deputy County Clerk
Sheriff
Deputies
Justice of the Peace
Constables
Mayor
Police Judge
City Attorney
Treasurer
Chief of Police
City Engineer
City Fireman
Engineer
City Jail
Street Commissioner
Weigher

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.
 1st District
 2nd District
 3rd District
 4th District
 5th District
 6th District

CONSTABLES.
 1st District
 2nd District
 3rd District
 4th District
 5th District
 6th District

CITY OFFICIAL DIRECTORY.
Mayor
Police Judge
City Attorney
Treasurer
Chief of Police
City Engineer
City Fireman
Engineer
City Jail
Street Commissioner
Weigher

POLICEMEN.
 Sam J. Rogers
 Geo. C. Evers
 John McCormick

Livery, Feed and Sale Stable.

FULL LINE OF LIVERY.
SADDLE HORSES, BUGGIES, DRUMMERS' HACKS, ETC.
West Liberty and Cannel City Hack-Line.
 A hack every day from West Liberty to Cannel City will meet all trains. Good teams and safe drivers. Reasonable charges. Call on my driver Jno. M. Moore.
WILL MOORE KENDALL
 West Liberty, Ky.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY

Shortest and Best Route From LOUISVILLE
 —TO—
ST. LOUIS AND THE WEST.

Two Fast Trains Daily running through solid from Louisville to St. Louis, without change, as follows:

Lv. Louisville.....9:00 a. m.
 Ar. St. Louis.....6:12 p. m.
 Lv. Louisville.....10:15 p. m.
 Ar. St. Louis.....7:32 p. m.

Most direct line to Chattanooga, Atlanta, Knoxville, Charleston and Florida and all Southern points, including Asheville, N. C., and the beautiful "Land of the Sky" and "Tennessee Country."

Send 2 cent stamp for "Land of the Sky" Booklet and other illustrated literature.

J. F. LOGAN, Trav. Pass. Agt.,
 111 East Main, Lexington, Ky.
 A. R. COOK, D. P. A.,
 224 Fourth Ave., Louisville, Ky.
 W. C. BEAM, G. P. A.,
 St. Louis, Mo.

THE FIFTH AVENUE Hotel
 Invites all Kentuckians to call when in Louisville.

BLAMED POOR PUSS HOLY LAND BELIEFS

INDIGNANT DINER JUMPED AT CONCLUSIONS.

Crimakin, Victim of Factious Waiter's Joke Gave Acrobatic Display For Amusement of Patrons of Restaurant.

A little German restaurant run in connection with a bar, at 212 West 12th street has a troublesome waiter who habitually provides much amusement for the patrons, says the New York Press. A few nights ago the waiter came belonging to the house was sitting on the knee of a man who was eating his dinner, with his face buried behind a newspaper. It was too peaceful a scene for the waiter to let continue.

From his pocket he drew a huge rubber band, and stretched it over the patrons at nearby tables. All paused to watch what would follow, for the waiter's prowess as a marksman with rubber bands was well known. One evening he had won a bet that he could put out a jet across the room at his first shot with a rubber band.

Directly opposite where the man sat with the cat on his knee was a door leading into the room reserved for the restaurant's women patrons. Emile—that's the waiter's name—took up a position in the other room that would enable him to dodge out of sight as soon as he let drive. The eagerly expectant neighbors of the unsuspecting victim of the coming "joke" could not see him shoot, but they observed the result.

The thick rubber band suddenly caught poor puss square in the jaw, and with a fearsome howl of fright she leaped into the air and came down with a hissing, spitting, clawing ball of animated fur plump upon the newspaper the quiet diner was holding before his face. In its abrupt utility his leap fully equalled the cat's. His chair went over behind him, and the little round table all but went over in front of him, his glass of beer upsetting and rolling to the floor.

From his breast the cat recoiled, so to speak, to the top of the table, and knocked off a dish or two in her frenzied scramble to get to the floor and escape. The commotion caused all the patrons at the far ends of the room to stand up, and the proprietor came hurrying over from behind the bar. It was then that Emile walked out from the kitchen as innocently as you please.

"What's the matter, Mr. Zimmerman?" he asked with an air of great surprise.

"Matter?" exclaimed the indignant diner. "Why the plaguey cat had a fit!"

The Woods in Old Violins.
 The old masters used such care in the selection of the wood for their instruments that, having found a piece of wood of proper fiber and vibrational powers, they treasured every fragment, no matter how small, and rather than waste even a particle of such a strip, they frequently constructed the backs and bellies of patches so delicately put together that the seams are only discoverable by microscope, so perfect is the cabinet work. It was ever the aim of the old masters to "marry" the back of the violin more which produces the quick vibrations, and the bellows of soft wood, producing the slower sound waves, in such a manner as to give the melody but ready timbre of the perfect instrument, says a writer in The Circle. Anatomically, a violin made by an old master is a miracle of construction. It can be taken to pieces, patched together, repaired indefinitely, and is almost indestructible. Repairing has been the means of creating some of the clever forgeries. The inside of a violin made by Stradivari, Guarneri, or other old masters, is as perfectly finished inside as outside, and the clumsy interior work of a forgery betrays an imitation at once.

Practicing on Ministers.
 "I counted seven girls taking down my sermon in shorthand this morning," said a suburban minister. "I am getting tired of this business of turning church into school. It is a generation of the Sabbath and of the sanctuary, and it gets worse year by year."

"When the thing first began, I admit that I was flattered. I thought the solitary shorthand writer in my front pews was a reporter. I took unusual pains that morning, and I searched all the newspapers the next day. In vain, of course. The shorthand writer was merely a student of stenography, using me to practice on. Students of stenography should practice on actors and on lecturers, not on those that would cost money. Nothing suits them but ministers, and every Sunday I find over our heads young men and women, with their pipes and fountain pens, go to church solely to improve their shorthand."

A Moral Pincushion.
 There are few families in which there is not a moral pincushion, and the people who are forced to live with them are the only ones capable of telling just how aggravating these self-made martyrs are, for the moral pincushion is usually a person eaten up with self-consciousness. This type of woman gets wrinkles around her eyes, her mouth drawn down at the corners and her forehead puckered with how heavy the result of deep study as to how each wicked speech could be meant for her.

The Law and the Negro.

The Evening Post on July 8th published a significant interview with Mr. Alex. Morris, a colored barber, a man of industry and reputation. He testifies to the vast change for the better among the homes of the negroes of Louisville, caused by the enforcement of the Sunday liquor law.

Like testimony comes from various quarters of the city. The curse of the negro in the cities today is the drink habit. It is cutting them off by the thousands. It is making the worthless class vicious and the vicious class intolerable. The open saloons where the negroes throng, especially Saturday night and Sunday night, have come to be a menace to law and order. Moreover, they have injured even the reputable and the industrious negro. More than anything else, they have sowed the seeds of distrust between the whites and the blacks. So many lawless negroes come from these haunts of vice that the race is discredited.

We believe if the law-abiding, reputable, responsible, the industrious negroes, will study the course of events, they will realize that the very best boon that has been conferred upon them has been conferred by Bingham; that is, conferred by the law enforced with a new sense of equality upon the whites and the blacks alike.

Heretofore the drunken negroes, the crap-shooting negroes, the lawless negroes, have purchased immunity or countenance from certain lawless policemen by political services in the primary and at the polls. That kind of immunity is gone; that kind of service is not only not exacted, it is not to be permitted.

We emphasize this tribute to the benefit of these changed conditions, because it has been assumed that the enforcement of the Sunday law would destroy the man who had the courage to take such a course, because it would unite against him the opponents of that law and because the negro vote was passing more and more under the control of the saloon and the police. It is the judgment of the Evening Post that a perfectly fair enforcement of this law will be a benefit to the citizens at large of all classes and conditions. It will do much to relieve the saloon business of the odium into which it has fallen. We believe before four months are up there will be a revolution in public opinion, not among those citizens who have been calling for this change, but among those people who have been resisting it.—Evening Post.

Good yield is shown by reports from over wheat belt. Most optimistic estimates may be exceeded.

Laz Liver

Suffering the misery and agony that come from your liver being out of order—trying to bear up in the belief that you will be all right in a day or two—are you deliberately neglecting the warning of outraged Nature, committing the blunder of believing that you don't need medicine? If you are, the sooner you commence the use of the better it will be for you. You can't afford to fool with your liver, and you certainly can't afford to be without this great remedy if your liver is out of order. Don't delay. Both you and your liver will be better "livers" than ever. DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN can be obtained in both dollar and half-dollar sizes from all druggists. Your money will be refunded if it does not benefit you. Your postal card request will bring by return mail our new booklet, "DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN" and free sample to those who have never tried this wonderful remedy.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

PEPSIN SYRUP CO.
 MONTICELLO, ILLINOIS.
 SOLD BY W. S. LLOYD.

RUN AROUND OLD NAMES.

Queer Cognomen That Came Across Ken of Insurance Office.

An insurance company, with headquarters in St. Louis and membership all over the south and west, has some queer experiences with the names of its policy holders and beneficiaries, says the Globe-Democrat of that city.

"I never knew what a lot of extraordinary names there were in the world until I got into this business," one of the officials said, as he finished reading a somewhat brusque letter. An agent had sent in an application for insurance from one "Edna Hoppen," who named as her beneficiary his wife, "Wilma Hoppen."

"I wrote to these people," the official said, "and told them that they had confused their signatures, and that the policy could not be put on record until the error had been corrected. Now, the man writes me that I am not half so smart as I think I am; that his name is Edna, and his wife was christened 'Wilma.'"

Another beneficiary is "Susanne Jones." She is fortunately the policy makes clear that this person is the wife of Abraham Jones. Susanne might be either masculine or feminine, but "Susanne Jones" had his mind put at rest when he found the big signature of Abraham, the policy holder, although he could not be sure that Abraham was not merely Josiah.

One policy, written for Samuel Pigg, named Miss Ella Ham as the beneficiary. There are six other Piggs named in the same company.

Killed Himself for Love of Dog.
 Back of the suicide of Fred Vogler, a farmer of Cherry Ridge, Pa., who hanged himself in the woods near his home, is a story of love of great depth in the heart of a man for his faithful dog. It was a story of devotion and of the man laying down his life upon the altar of that friendship.

Rover always had a series of wags of his tail and joyous barks for his master. The dog appeared happy and contented with his lot, and in ways showed a similar feeling. They were "chums."

Vogler's son, who was told to bring home some bread and butter, had forgotten it. There was but one loaf in the house, and the father insisted on giving a big share of that to the dog. Quarrel between members of the family followed. He tossed most of the bread to Rover. Then the quarrel was renewed. The man threatened suicide. He hurried toward the woods, threw a rope over the limb of a tree, placed a noose around his neck and jumped off the box on which he was standing—Philadelphia Ledger.

What a Barber Is.
 A friend of Oliver Herford, the artist and author, enjoys nothing more than to elicit a witticism from him by means of a series of odd questions. He said one day:

"Olive, have you ever talked with a concealed German barber, one of those individuals whose head is perfectly round, like an orange, and whose hair stands up straight, like hog's bristles?"

"I have," said Oliver.
 "Then tell me what is your definition of such a concealed German barber?"

"A concealed German barber of the type mentioned," replied Herford solemnly, "is a human sausage endowed with unlimited power of speech."—Sunday Magazine.

"Hoodlum" and "Hooligan."
 "Hoodlum," America's equivalent of the English word "hooligan," was coined at San Francisco very early in the '70s, but did not become generally popular in the United States until about 1877, by which time it was certainly as to its origin was lost. One version is that the leader of the San Francisco "larrikin push" was a man named Muldoon, whose name a newspaper writer ingeniously reversed to christen his gang "hoodlums," and a compositor's mistake of "n" for "h" did the rest. Another explanation is that "Huddle em!" was the San Francisco rowdies' cry when the police appeared, and a third alludes to a curious form of "hood" worn by an eccentric character, which the young rowdies adopted as their uniform.

Her Purpose.
 The friend of the actress looked at her in some surprise.

"But why should you work so hard and be so saying?" she asked.
 "My dear friend," she lightly replied, "I am working with an object in view. I want to save enough money to warrant me in securing a boy-husband."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Wise Precaution.
 Little Ethel—Mamma, don't people ever get punished for telling the truth?
 Mamma—No, dear; why do you ask?
 Little Ethel—Cause I just took the last three tarts in the pantry and I thought I'd better tell you.

No Babies Allowed.
 "Wake up!" hissed the janitor's wife.
 "What for?" grunted her husband.
 "There's a burglar getting into the building."
 "That's all right as long as he ain't bringin' no babies with him."—Houses Post.

MT. STERLING Collegiate Institute.

Session 1907-1908
 Will Open
Tuesday, September 10.
 Courses of Study in PRIMARY
 INTERMEDIATE
 PREPARATORY and COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT

Just the School for Boys and Girls, Young Men and Young Women. A School where there is both thorough instruction and a thorough system of discipline. A faculty of men and women, competent and efficient, with whom you can afford to entrust your children.

Wm. H. CORD, Principal.
 Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Home Steam Laundry Co.
 Best Work; Closest Prices.
 We use distilled water free from microbes.

EVERYBODY EATS IN MT. STERLING

Groceries, Meats, Fruits, Etc.
 Fresh, Nice, First-class can be had at our Store.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.

M. B. FRENCH

Court and Maysville Sts.
Shropshire, Ricketts & Co.

Livery, Feed and Sale Stable
 Bank Street, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Fresh, Spirited and Safe Horses
 New and Up-to-date Conveyances

PRICES EXACTLY RIGHT.
 Bay, Develop, Train and Sell Fine Horses.

The Bryan Studio

Would just like to suggest that these bright spring days are mighty good

Picture-making Days.

The Bryan Studio

After a heavy meal, take a couple of Doan's Regulets, and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulets bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.

Chewers who read the information given in this space in next week's paper will then know why SCHNAPPS and other of the Reynolds' brands, as shown by Internal Revenue statistics for a fiscal year, made the wonderful gain of six and one-fourth million pounds, or a net gain of one-third of the entire increased consumption of chewing and smoking tobacco in the United States.

R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO.
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

WAY OF THE EAST

TURKISH WIFE'S REVENGE ON FAITHLESS HUSBAND.

Subtle Poison Brought Quick End to Woman's Faded Romance—Revelation of a Tragic Secret of the Harem.

A Turkish subject who married an American man and lived in this country for six years has recently revisited the land of her birth. She has been describing for Appleton's Magazine some of her experiences. Here is one of them.

"Chakende Hanum was the daughter of Nazim Pasha. She was educated in the western fashion. She was as beautiful as an hour, and as good as Allah's own heart. She was given as a wife to Djalal Pasha, a young and dashing courtier. They were very much in love with each other, and he promised her that she should remain his first and only wife. Thus he could marry the foreign lady. It was then that Djalal Pasha turned her from Allah. He laughed at her, and said that Mlle. Roboul of the French theatrical company was the kind of a woman that men loved, but did not marry. Chakende Hanum said nothing, but that very same day went into her garden and plucked roses from a laurel tree. You know, young Hanum, what you can do with those roses?"

A shiver ran down my back as I uttered. A few nights later when Djalal Pasha was about to retire, Chakende Hanum prepared his supper for him. Her hand did not tremble, though her face was white as she handed it to him. It did not last long; Djalal Pasha died from an unexplained malady, but Chakende Hanum kept on plucking laurel roses daily. After a while she put her in her little grave, too, five years ago."

We sat silent for awhile. The moon had traveled fast and was now near the water, bridging the Bosphorus with her moonlight. The garden, the hills and the water changed with the changing slant of the rays, and became more wondrously enchanting still, though that had not seemed possible before, and enthralled me with the fascination of the east—the east whose language and ways of dealing with right and wrong had been alien to me for six years.

A MECHANIC PRIEST.

Cure Mends Motor Cars When Not Engaged in Holy Offices.

Near the northern coast of France, on a route much frequented by motorists, lies the village of Graincourt. Here a beautiful little church is sequestered among the trees, with a tower reflected tranquilly in a lake that sleeps beside the road, and a cemetery half hidden in verdure. Close by is the home of the priest, and around it a strange litter of bicycles, motor cycles, automobiles, oil cans and tools, with the open door of a car-bulldozing reveals on one side a kind of garage, on the other a repair shop. From this building, as the tourist approaches, comes a tall figure, with the body of an athlete and the head of a missionary, with bright eyes and a grizzled beard, a kindly smile, and muscular arms bearded to the elbow. Is this the cure of Graincourt or is it the village mechanic? He is both. Times are hard, since the late separation church from state went into effect, and one must live, explains the cure.

M. le Cure is no martyr, however. His father was a smith, and he grew up with a passion for tools. When the bicycle came in he became an amateur specialist, and for 15 years he has been mending punctured tires and repairing broken pedals for his flock free of charge. Then came the motor car, with its mysterious life, so powerful in its trail envelope. The motor car won the heart of the cure. He loves it, and thinks he understands it. He has even built a car and a motor cycle for himself.

And so the fame of the mechanical cure of Graincourt has gone abroad throughout all the country, and at last he has decided, without any scruple, to make a business of what had formerly been a pastime. He believes in his simple soul that he can be just as good a priest, can administer the sacraments and hear confessions just as well, while he earns his living with his ten fingers.—New York Tribune.

PASTIME OF JOCKEYS.

Get Their Enjoyment Out of Humble Sports.

To the casual visitor to the race tracks around New York, who is quite as much interested in the human spectacle as he is in the races themselves, one of the elements that attract his attention is the pastime of the jockeys. These pale-faced little lads, whose countenances are sadly serious as a rule, have such a curiously boyish way of enjoying themselves between races that it comes as a surprise to one not familiar with their ways to learn that one of the racing men threatened to suspend his $25,000 rider if he did not refrain from spending his nights at Coney island or in the Tenderloin.

The surprise will come to such a man since whenever he has seen them killing time between races they have almost invariably been playing number-the-seated or the pastime of the jockeys. These pale-faced little lads, whose countenances are sadly serious as a rule, have such a curiously boyish way of enjoying themselves between races that it comes as a surprise to one not familiar with their ways to learn that one of the racing men threatened to suspend his $25,000 rider if he did not refrain from spending his nights at Coney island or in the Tenderloin.

Reduced Rates.

—VIA—

QUEEN & CRESCENT ROUTE

On the first and third Tuesdays of each month to many points

SOUTH

Winter Tourists Tickets now on sale, good till May 31. For particulars apply to

H. C. KING
C. P. & T. A. Lexington, Ky.

FIRE!

Lightning, Tornado, Bonds.

If you have a house or stock of any kind or anywhere, to insure against loss by Fire, Lightning or Wind Storms, or wish to make a bond on short notice, let me know, and I will attend to it at once, at the Lowest Possible Cost

I represent some of the oldest and strongest Fire Insurance Companies in the world, and the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, the largest bonding company in existence.

M. J. GOODWIN.

Residence Phone 276. Office Phone 314. Odd Fellows' Building, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

New Firm.

J. R. LITTLE

S. W. Corner Queen and Locust. PHONE 192.

FRESH GROCERIES, FRESH MEATS, CHOICE FRUITS, Butter, Eggs and Chickens.

Do their own work and make their prices way down. Highest market price paid for COUNTRY PRODUCE. 40-177

For Sale. Three brood sows, bred, J. W. Hedden.

ADVICE FOR THE BRIDE.

Writer Says Let Hubby Have Occasional Evenings Out.

There are not a few women in the world who have a rooted idea that their husbands should be as much a home fixture as the domestic cat, and this little mistake on their part is an active agent in the propagation of matrimonial woes.

Man is essentially a creature of change, and monotony is the death blow of many a one-time fierce, burning passion. Consequently the wise woman, knowing this, will encourage her husband to spend an occasional evening out, recognizing that her company and that of his home will be better appreciated if sandwiched in between a night with his old chums or one spent at the nine-chained but innocent club meeting.

Early in married life a woman should recognize this fact and act accordingly. Instead of adopting an aggressive attitude when her husband suggests going out, she should smile sweetly, help him to get out and say: "I'm glad you are going out, dear. Don't hurry home," and when he does come it should be to find a smiling wife and a good supper.

This is the sort of marriage which is seldom a failure. The husband of such a wife is always in love with her, and has a habit of mentally contrasting her with the other wives of his acquaintance, much to her advantage.

There are many worse fellows than the one who seeks an occasional night out with his particular chums. Encourage him, little bride, and don't weep your bonnie eyes out when he takes you at your word. Never mind the example of your neighbor who has a husband of the first-class henpecked order, says Woman's Life. You do not want to go any to put the first touch of blight on your still warm, glowing affection, and this assuredly will happen if you do not restrain your passion for an unlimited dose of your husband's company.

ONE THING HE KNEW.

A certain former mayor of Manchester, Mass., and a certain former alderman, both of whom for the purposes of this story shall be nameless, were at swords' points during the whole of their political careers, and indulged in many a wordy scuffle. The mayor never had got beyond the high school in his educational career, and the alderman had saved off his schooling with the grammar grade, and neither prided himself on his scholarship.

It happened one day that they indulged in an argument rather more heated than usual. "See here," said the alderman at length, "I may not be much of a scholar, but there is one thing about it, I know enough not to spell Jesus with a small g!" —Boston Herald.

KNEW HER DAD.

Mother—Yes, Ruth, the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. Ruth—It's lucky dad ain't a camel, ain't it, ma?

USE FOR SAGE'S MONEY.

Mrs. Russell Sage, it is learned, may be a generous patron of the government to establish a permanent women's art club in Brooklyn or Manhattan at a cost of $100,000 or more. Mrs. Sage has recently been showing a keen interest in women artists of Manhattan, who are struggling to make a livelihood in art. If Mrs. Sage should contribute it is probable that the scheme to raise $100,000 to erect a studio building near Prospect park will be enlarged to raise a much greater sum, probably $300,000 or $400,000.

NO HOPE OF CONTENTMENT.

"She has everything she wants." "Everything?" "Positively everything." "No wonder she is discontented."

PROFESSIONAL.

H. R. PREWITT
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,
Mt. Sterling, Kentucky.

Office: Court St., opposite Court House, Samuels Building, front room upstairs.

LEWIS APPERSON
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,
Office: First floor, Tyler-Apperson Building, Mayville Street.

J. G. WINN
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,
Mt. Sterling, Kentucky.
Office: Over Montgomery National Bank.

DR. D. L. PROCTOR
DENTIST,
Mt. Sterling, Kentucky.
Office over Lindsey & Rodman, Court Street.

DR. R. L. SPRATT
DENTIST,
Mt. Sterling, Kentucky.
Office: West Main St., second floor William building, adjoining First Presbyterian Church.

FINLEY E. FOGG
LAWYER
West Liberty, Kentucky.

For the Best

Fitting, Plumbing, Highest Grade of Gas Stoves, Etc., See

JOHN WILLIAM
East Main St.

Prices are exactly right. Quality the best.

Wall Paper AND ROOM MOULDINGS.

My stock of Paper is about complete. Every pattern new 1907 goods. About 200 combinations to select from. These are bargains for you. Prices are right. Come in and see for yourself. A new line of Picture Frame Mouldings, Latest style frames of all kinds made to order. See the rich colored fruit designs for your dining room. Panel and upper trim treatments. Plate Rail and all kinds room mouldings. Pressed leather linoleum. Wallon dyed and filled burlaps, all at bargain.

E. L. Brockway.
Phone 297 Next door to Express Office

MARKLAND AND SNEDEGAR
Successors to J. T. Jones
Owingsville, Ky.

Livery, Feed and Sale Stable.
BUS LINE TO PRESTON.
TURNOUTS ALL NEW.

Phone No. 70.

LOOK

This Way For

Buggies, Harness, Brides, Etc.

Quality of Goods, Styles, Prices and Terms make them go.

REUBEN H. DALE
Successor to Chas. Rea.

Frankfort & Cincinnati R'y

"THE MIDLAND ROUTE."

LOCAL TIME TABLE
IN EFFECT JUNE 5th, 1905.

P. M. A. M.	DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY	A. M. P. M.	NO. 1
2:00	Frankfort to Ky. Central	11:20	2
2:15	Frankfort to Ky. Central	11:35	2
2:30	Frankfort to Ky. Central	11:50	2
2:45	Frankfort to Ky. Central	12:05	2
3:00	Frankfort to Ky. Central	12:20	2
3:15	Frankfort to Ky. Central	12:35	2
3:30	Frankfort to Ky. Central	12:50	2
3:45	Frankfort to Ky. Central	1:05	2
4:00	Frankfort to Ky. Central	1:20	2
4:15	Frankfort to Ky. Central	1:35	2
4:30	Frankfort to Ky. Central	1:50	2
4:45	Frankfort to Ky. Central	2:05	2
5:00	Frankfort to Ky. Central	2:20	2
5:15	Frankfort to Ky. Central	2:35	2
5:30	Frankfort to Ky. Central	2:50	2
5:45	Frankfort to Ky. Central	3:05	2
6:00	Frankfort to Ky. Central	3:20	2
6:15	Frankfort to Ky. Central	3:35	2
6:30	Frankfort to Ky. Central	3:50	2
6:45	Frankfort to Ky. Central	4:05	2
7:00	Frankfort to Ky. Central	4:20	2
7:15	Frankfort to Ky. Central	4:35	2
7:30	Frankfort to Ky. Central	4:50	2
7:45	Frankfort to Ky. Central	5:05	2
8:00	Frankfort to Ky. Central	5:20	2
8:15	Frankfort to Ky. Central	5:35	2
8:30	Frankfort to Ky. Central	5:50	2
8:45	Frankfort to Ky. Central	6:05	2
9:00	Frankfort to Ky. Central	6:20	2
9:15	Frankfort to Ky. Central	6:35	2
9:30	Frankfort to Ky. Central	6:50	2
9:45	Frankfort to Ky. Central	7:05	2
10:00	Frankfort to Ky. Central	7:20	2
10:15	Frankfort to Ky. Central	7:35	2
10:30	Frankfort to Ky. Central	7:50	2
10:45	Frankfort to Ky. Central	8:05	2
11:00	Frankfort to Ky. Central	8:20	2
11:15	Frankfort to Ky. Central	8:35	2
11:30	Frankfort to Ky. Central	8:50	2
11:45	Frankfort to Ky. Central	9:05	2
12:00	Frankfort to Ky. Central	9:20	2
12:15	Frankfort to Ky. Central	9:35	2
12:30	Frankfort to Ky. Central	9:50	2
12:45	Frankfort to Ky. Central	10:05	2
1:00	Frankfort to Ky. Central	10:20	2
1:15	Frankfort to Ky. Central	10:35	2
1:30	Frankfort to Ky. Central	10:50	2
1:45	Frankfort to Ky. Central	11:05	2
2:00	Frankfort to Ky. Central	11:20	2

Connects at Georgetown Union Depot with Q. & C.
Connects at Paris Union Depot with Kenton & Central.
Connects at Frankfort Union Depot with L. & N.
Geo. B. HARPER, C. W. HAY,
Pres. and Gen'l Supt.

Lexington & Eastern R'y

TIME TABLE.

Effective November 15, 1906.

East-Bound.

STATIONS.	No. 1	No. 2	No. 3
Lexington	7:00 A. M.	7:00 A. M.	7:00 A. M.
Winchester	7:15	7:15	7:15
W. & E. Junction	7:30	7:30	7:30
Clay & O. Junction	7:45	7:45	7:45
Wheatland	8:00	8:00	8:00
Ellettsville	8:15	8:15	8:15
Union Junction	8:30	8:30	8:30
Centerville Junction	8:45	8:45	8:45
Union Junction	9:00	9:00	9:00
Ellettsville	9:15	9:15	9:15
Wheatland	9:30	9:30	9:30
Clay & O. Junction	9:45	9:45	9:45
W. & E. Junction	10:00	10:00	10:00
Winchester	10:15	10:15	10:15
Lexington	10:30	10:30	10:30

West-Bound.

STATIONS.	No. 1	No. 2	No. 3
Lexington	7:00 P. M.	7:00 P. M.	7:00 P. M.
Winchester	7:15	7:15	7:15
W. & E. Junction	7:30	7:30	7:30
Clay & O. Junction	7:45	7:45	7:45
Wheatland	8:00	8:00	8:00
Ellettsville	8:15	8:15	8:15
Union Junction	8:30	8:30	8:30
Centerville Junction	8:45	8:45	8:45
Union Junction	9:00	9:00	9:00
Ellettsville	9:15	9:15	9:15
Wheatland	9:30	9:30	9:30
Clay & O. Junction	9:45	9:45	9:45
W. & E. Junction	10:00	10:00	10:00
Winchester	10:15	10:15	10:15
Lexington	10:30	10:30	10:30

Trains Nos. 1 and 2 daily except Sunday.

Trains Nos. 1 and 2 daily except Sunday.

At Lexington Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Winchester Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Clay & O. Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Wheatland Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Ellettsville Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Union Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Centerville Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Union Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Ellettsville Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Wheatland Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Clay & O. Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Winchester Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Lexington Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Winchester Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Clay & O. Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Wheatland Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Ellettsville Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Union Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Centerville Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Union Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Ellettsville Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Wheatland Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Clay & O. Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Winchester Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Lexington Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Winchester Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Clay & O. Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Wheatland Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Ellettsville Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Union Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Centerville Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Union Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Ellettsville Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Wheatland Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Clay & O. Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Winchester Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Lexington Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Winchester Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Clay & O. Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Wheatland Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Ellettsville Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Union Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Centerville Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At Union Junction—Trains Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

At

ROCKEFELLER

Is Behind the Big Harvester Trust.

The 'International Harvester Trust' is the most glaring violator of the Sherman law in the United States. The government has entered upon a further investigation with a view of wiping the trust out of existence.

Behind the trust instead of J. P. Morgan and George W. Perkins, as had been believed, looms up John D. Rockefeller. Harold McCormick married Mr. Rockefeller's daughter.

Rockefeller supplied the $20,000,000 of live capital that was put into the trust and Morgan and Perkins merely acted as brokers, receiving a commission of less than $3,000,000 for their connection with the deal.

See V. A. Reis, W. Locust St., for harness and repairs. 29 years experience. Coal for sale. 43-6t

C. J. Bronston Indicted.

The grand jury at Lexington returned two indictments against C. J. Bronston, the lawyer. One for shooting at W. R. Milward, without wounding, with intent to kill; the other for carrying concealed weapons.

GOING AWAY? $3,000 insurance against death and $25 a week "while hid up" caused from travel accidents at less than 11c a day. Investigate before you start.

H. G. HOFMAN,
1-1f General Agent.

New Paper for Lexington.

Lexington is to have a new newspaper. The "Oblooker" is to appear Saturday, July 20. The editor will be Mr. D. H. Keller, who is well known in medical circles and has achieved some fame with the public as the author of the "Oblooker" in the Leader. The policy of the paper will be independent.

Bert Wren sold his 1906 tobacco crop, 20,000 pounds, at 13c.

HAD NOT FOUND HAPPINESS.

Therefore Workman Returned to Benefactor With Another Request.

A man of extreme wealth, tired of taking care of his money, went to a secluded spot on a river bridge and jumped off. He was not aware that life-savers always frequent secluded spots, and that the best place to commit suicide is on Broadway, at noon. And, sure enough, a poor workman leaped in after him and pulled him out, cold and shivering.

As he stood there, dripping, it occurred to the wealthy man that what he had needed was not eternity, but just a cold bath. And he waxed grateful.

"I am rich beyond telling," he said. "I will grant you any wish—I will make real your wildest hopes."

The poor workman replied instantly: "Then give me $1,000,000."

"A million dollars?" asked the man of great wealth. "That is the easiest thing in the world. But stop a moment—consider. It was money that made me try to kill myself. You had better go slow."

"A million dollars," repeated the poor workman, steadily.

"Very well; you shall have it. But since you have saved my life, I will make this further offer: If at the end of three years you are not satisfied with your bargain, come to me, and I will do whatever you wish."

Three years passed, and the former poor workman came to his benefactor's door.

"Aha, I thought so!" exclaimed the man of great wealth. "I knew you would come back. You know now how little more money means. Now, what can I do for you?"

"Aha! I have found how little happiness can be got with a million," was the sad reply.

"Aha, I knew it!" exclaimed the man of extreme wealth. "And since you have found how little happiness can be got with $1,000,000 what will you have me do for you next?"

"Give me another million," replied the former poor workman.—Judge.

A Question of Privilege.

A well-known Harvard professor was one day traveling by trolley from Cambridge to Boston, where he intended to call upon a friend. He asked the conductor to transfer him to the city cars at a certain point.

Soon afterward the car stopped and the Harvard man, on looking out of the window, was surprised to see the very friend he was seeking. He started to leave the car, but the conductor stopped him.

"You can't change here," he said brusquely.

The professor passed him, making no response.

"You can't change here, I tell you," persisted the conductor.

By this time the professor was on the rear step. "Here, you old jay!" exclaimed the conductor, "haven't I told you that you can't change here?"

At this the good man flushed. "Well, I can change my mind here, can't I?" —Lippincott's Magazine.

America's Babel.

This upper corner of Michigan is a show ground of the people of 30 nations at work, side by side in peace and comfort. The native-born is outnumbered on a basis of one American to 100 foreigners.

The Cornwell and Finnish miners lead in numbers, followed by the Irish, Scotch, Welsh, German, Polish, French, Danish, Norwegian, Swedish, Poles, Russians, Hollanders, Greeks, Swiss, Austrians, Belgians, Negroes, Slavs, Bohemians, with a sprinkling above ground of Chinese, Arabians, Persians and one family of Laplanders.

There is an amazing medley of races, in which the American seems fairly lonesome. Among the local newspapers are the Weekly Glasnik, the Daily Patriarch, the American Southerner and La Stentinel.

Even the leading American newspaper publishes for the benefit of its subscribers a daily column in the dialect of Cornwall.—Outing.

Queer Book Titles.

"These old books," said the antiquary, as he pointed to a dirty open shelf, "are curious for their titles."

"Here is a volume of sermons printed in Salem in 1792. 'Sermons to Asses' is its scornful name."

"Here is a book dated 1745 that is called 'Look to It, or 111 Stab Ye.' It is a treatise on polygamy."

"This is a pamphlet by a spinster against the young men of the seventeenth century. Its title is 'A Dissertation on the Perseus of Our Youth in General, Especially Such as Are Trained Up at Tea Tables.'"

"A return blast to that dissertation is this other pamphlet of the same year—'Quippes for Upstart New-fangled Gentlemen; or, a Glass to View the Pride of Vainglorious Woman.'"

On the Links.

Bunker—Miss Woodby is so eccentric in her golf playing since her return from Paris.

Miss Niblock—Is she, really?

Bunker—Yes, indeed. When she fizzes now, she invariably exclaims: "Hoot mon Die!"—Reader.

Civic Pride.

"My town," said the first traveler, "is Greater New York."

"Glad to know you," cried the other; "I'm from Chicago, too."

"I say my town is Greater New York." "Oh! I thought you said greater than New York."

CAVALD JUDGMENT OF GOD.

Thief's Death at Hands of Child Whose Parents He Had Robbed.

The New York Sunday-World's correspondent in Budapest sends it the following account of a recent tragedy in the village of Kapovsar, Hungary:

Janos Verza, a stock farmer, sold some oxen for 900 crowns and concealed the money in his house. Ferenc Gal, a ne'er-do-well of the village, knew of this transaction and determined to get the money. He watched the house until he saw Verza and his wife leave it. Then he entered and had no difficulty in finding the money, which he pocketed.

As he was about to leave he noticed sitting in a corner, staring silently and intently at him, the Vargas six-year-old daughter. Realizing that she had watched his theft, he determined to get rid of this witness against him. He threw a rope over a beam in the ceiling and tied a noose in one end of it. Picking up the little girl, he tried to persuade her to put her head into the noose, saying it was a nice game.

"How?" she asked.

"I'll show you," said the robber, laughing.

Gal put down the little girl, drew up a chair, stood upon it and put his head through the noose.

"L" said, he said, again laughing, as if it was all a game he was playing with the girl.

The child pulled the chair away suddenly; the robber fell, his neck in the noose and was strangled to death.

The child watched her victim's death straggle until they ceased, then went outside to await for her parents. When they returned she took them to the room where the dead thief still dangled and told them in great glee what had taken place. The 900 crowns were found in the pockets of the robber and the six-year-old child is now the heroine of the village, where the event is called a "judgment of God."

New Orleans Cities of the Dead.

"New Orleans has several miniature cities within its boundaries, and they are the cities of the dead," said Louis W. Le Branc of the Crescent City.

"I mean," he explained, "that every cemetery in New Orleans is a miniature city. They are built above the ground and laid out in streets, just as the larger city. Every house is of marble and some of the tombs are miniature. In them are buried many men who won fame under the domination of Spain and France. In them, too, are to be found inscriptions that tell of sweet Creole romances, such as that of Jeanne Lachete, the popular singer of nearly a century ago, who died of a broken heart."

Certain days are set apart, according to the old French Catholic custom for visiting these miniature cities, and on these days they are crowded all day long. As they were built so long ago they are now in the center of the city and at night low weeds indeed. Long ago it was found necessary to build the cemeteries above the ground, because of the fact that the city itself is below the level of the Mississippi river."

Voice of Experience.

A young girl recently went to her aunt on a momentous occasion. She explained that a gentleman was coming to see her.

"I am sure he likes me," she sobbed, "and—and I think he means to propose. I don't like to ask mother how I should act under the circumstances, but—"

"Do you like him?" interrupted aunt sternly.

"Very much," observed her niece.

"Enough to marry him?"

The girl blushed and replied in the affirmative.

"Then," said aunt, with an air of authority, "don't let there be any shilly-shallying. When he pops, don't turn red and look down at the carpet. Just throw your arms around his neck, look him full in the face and begin talking about the furniture."

A Korean Romance.

A romantic little story comes from the Chuk San district, says the Korea Daily Times. One of the residents having died, his only wife declared her intention of killing herself. Arguing that it was not right for a woman to remain alive after her husband was dead and that she would be far happier if she followed him she put her plan into execution and committed suicide the same night. She was only 29 years of age.

A Difference.

"Why should my anxious breast re pine because my youth has fled?" she sang with great feeling in the hotel parlor.

"Were you married to the youth or only engaged?" asked an impudent debauche who stood near the piano.

Unconsciously Frank.

Mrs. Brown—How do you do, Mrs. Miller? Why haven't you been to see me? It is six months since you last called.

Mrs. Miller—Dear me! Can it be possible that it is six months since my husband has given me any diamonds?

A Fresh Clerk.

Customer—What have you got that is strictly fresh?

Grocer—One moment, please. Here, Johnny, wait on the lady.

Church Bells Must Not Be rung in Clear Lake on Sunday.

Determined to have an absolutely tight lid in Clear Lake, Iowa, on Sunday, Mayor Young has prohibited the janitors from ringing church bells.

Williams' Kidney Pills.

Have you noticed your kidneys? Have you overworked your back, aching and cramped with your kidneys? Have you pain in your back, side, back, groin and legs, especially under the evening? Have you a heavy, tired feeling? If so, Williams' Kidney Pills will cure you. Sample free. By mail, 50c. Sold by Thos. Kennedy. 20-17

The Union Station at Lexington is ready for occupancy. The second floor is occupied by the L. & E. offices. The traction lines will also use the building and start out from there.

Barnett Appeared.

On Saturday Henry Barnett, of Jackson, appeared before Mayor Combs in Lexington and testified regarding saloons being open in Lexington on Sunday two weeks ago. He corroborated what he previously stated and gave the name of the saloon, the Navarro. He also said that he bought at another saloon on Sunday and gave name. Owing to absence of some important witnesses the Mayor continued examination until tomorrow. This is an interesting case.

Messrs. R. A. Chiles and Harry Linthicum were in the collision of L. & N. passenger trains at Poin-dexter on Monday afternoon, the 8th. Neither were hurt.

THE 'FAR.'

New Store! New Goods! Strictly Cash. One Price to All. Everything marked in Plain Figures. Have you secured any of our Bargains? Give us a trial. We can save you money.

A FEW REMINDERS:
6 Ice Tea Glasses . . . . .	40c
Large Glass Pitcher . . . . .	75c
Picture Frames, 16x20 . . . . .	98c
Table Oil Cloth, yd. . . . .	15c
Sheets Fly Paper . . . . .	45c
Feather Dusters . . . . .	25c
1 Palm Leaf Fans . . . . .	5c
Wire Rat Traps . . . . .	35c
Bread Boxes . . . . .	40, 50, 60c
Towel Rollers . . . . .	10c
Dust Pans . . . . .	5c
2 Glass Salt Cellars . . . . .	5c
Screen Top Covers . . . . .	10, 12, 15c
Thermometers . . . . .	10c
Polish Makers . . . . .	2c
Back Combs . . . . .	10, 15c
Jap. Silk Fans . . . . .	10c
Crepe Paper, roll . . . . .	5c
Shoe Polish . . . . .	5, 10c
Tablets . . . . .	1, 3, 5c

CASH PAID FOR EGGS.

E. W. HEFLIN,

1. O. O. F. BUILDING. MAIN STREET.

J. W. JONES

THE JEWELER

Oliver Chilled Plows

19

Are the best general purpose plows in the world. They are the ONLY original and genuine chilled plows made. There are over 2,000,000 Oliver Chilled Plows in actual use.

They are WARRANTED to do better work and MORE OF IT, with same amount of draft, than any other plow made.

Prewitt & Howell,

SOLE AGENTS.

We handle both wood and steel beam.

THE BIG BLUE GRASS FAIR

(INCORPORATED)

AT LEXINGTON, KY.

OVER
$25,000
In Premiums

Aug. 12-17
6 Big Days 6

OVER
$25,000
In Premiums

KOPP'S MILITARY BAND

The Great Knabenshue Airship

DAILY ASCENTS

The Best and Most Extensive List of Free Attractions in the Country.

16—Thrilling Acts Each Day—16

For Preliminary Prize List and Catalogue address
JOUETT SHOUSE, Secretary, Lexington, Ky.

There is no Guess Work at this Store

There are no "ifs" and "ands" about a transaction with us. Our proposition is as simple as A. B. C. We propose to sell you furniture in the shape of that won't break down. We are going to try and put the prices so low that no one else can go lower and keep out of the Sheriff's hands. That's our proposition. Come and give us a visit.

Furniture

W. A. SUTTON & SON

The Furniture Dealers and Undertakers

Corner Main and Bank Streets

MT. STERLING, — KENTUCKY

PETERS' SHOES ARE SUMMER SHOES

Peters' Diamond Brand Shoes

are the correct Summer Shoes. They're constructed with a view of giving the greatest possible amount of comfort to the feet during the warm summer months. The soles of our "Diamonds" go through a special course of cork filling. Cork being a non-conductor of heat this process makes the soles protect the feet from the hot walks and streets. Then, too, "Diamonds" are made from soft pliable leathers on lasts that conform properly with every line and curve of the feet. Buy our "Diamonds" and you'll buy comfort, style and wear.

J. H. Brunner, The Shoe Man

SOLE AGENT

Next door to Cooper & Ring's      Mayville Street,      Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Paints

Oils,
Varnishes,
Brushes,
Jap-Lac,
Varnish Stains,
Bak-Tub Enamel,
Wire Screen Enamel, anything needed for painting, at

Duerson's Drug Store.
Phone 129. No. 7 Court St.

PERSONAL.

James McKee, of Chicago, is here visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Apperson on Sunday returned from Canada.

Richard Clark, of Portland, O., is visiting his mother and sisters.

Mrs. O. P. Clay, of Paris, is here, the guest of Mrs. M. W. Chorn.

Sheriff Hampton and wife, of Winchester, spent Sunday with L. E. Griggs.

Misses Anna Nesbitt and Pearl Lane are visiting in Bourbon county this week.

Miss Anna Johnson on Saturday returned from a long visit to Cincinnati, O.

Mrs. Wm. Day and children, of Bethel, are spending this week with relatives on Spencer.

Jacob W. Heiden will attend a house party this week at Bergin, Ky., given by Miss Bergin.

N. T. McKee, after two weeks visit to his father's family, has returned to Cleveland, Ohio.

Alex Conner was here on Monday, accompanied by his father-in-law, Jas. McKee, of Chicago.

C. R. Perkins of this office, will leave next week for Jamestown, and Old Point Comfort.

Miss Margaret Trimble, after a visit to Mrs. John Stofor, has returned to her home in Missouri.

Misses Julia Morris and Mary Ray Trimble will leave within a week to visit at Middletown, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brown, of Winchester, spent Monday with their relative, Mrs. H. Clay McKee.

Hon. South Trimble, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, spent Monday with his uncle, J. G. Trimble.

Reid Rogers, General Counsel for the Panama Canal Commission, is in the city. His wife and daughter are in Italy.

Misses Henrietta Ballard and Ernestine Grigsby, of Louisville, the very pleasant guests of Miss Joetta Brawner.

Messrs. J. Wells Wilkerson, Bert VanEvara and Anderson Alford, of Lexington, spent Sunday with their families.

The friends of Thos. Evans were pleased to see him in town on Saturday, the first visit since his serious sickness.

Frank Trimble, of Memphis, Tenn., came on Saturday to visit his brother, J. G. Trimble and left Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. B. F. Soper, F. C. Soper and wife and Jas. W. Mason left yesterday to see Mr. A. B. Crawford at Kansas City, Mo., who is very sick.

Henry C. Reesor, of the American Car Foundry Company, Huntington, W. Va., was here last week visiting his father's family, Green Reesor.

Miss Georgie Wilson, of Cincinnati, who is with the C. H. & D. R. R., is at home on a vacation visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wilson.

Augustus Ayers, Superintendent of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Car Shops, Elkhart, Indiana, was the guest of Trimble McKee last week.

Mrs. A. S. Hart and daughter, Laura, returned Saturday from Pomona, Cal., where they visited Rev. M. A. Hart. They were accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Hart, who had spent the winter there.

C. D. Powell and wife (nee Miss Cumma Mason), of Lexington, are spending vacation with Mrs. Powell's relatives, J. H. Mason and family. Because of Mr. Powell's poor health they will return to California the coming fall.

Harris & Chenault

Funeral Directors

South Maysville St. Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Day Phone 179
Night Phones 146 and 711

Elliott Property Sold.

Master Commissioner reports that the J. M. Elliott residence on Howard Avenue was sold on Monday at public sale to A. B. Oldham for $6,550.

The Montgomery County Teachers' Institute will be held, beginning Monday, August 5, conducted by Prof. R. M. Shupp, of Winchester.

GOING AWAY? $3,000 insurance against death and $25 a week "while laid up" caused from travel accidents at less than 1c a day. Investigate before you start. H. G. HOFFMAN, 1-4f General Agent.

To the Voters of Mt. Sterling.

Do not pledge your votes for City Clerk as I will announce in due time for that office. J. Wells Wilkerson.

The large tobacco warehouse of J. Will Clay on line of C. & O. and Sycamore street will be completed this week. It is one of the largest in Kentucky.

DEATHS.

KING.—Martin V. King, aged 67, died at the home of his son-in-law, Rufus Dunn, on the Winchester pike at the bridge on Monday night, July 15, 1907. The burial was in Winchester this (Wednesday) morning. Services by Rev. Jas. Harding. He had been sick since Wednesday. He leaves a wife and five children—A. W., of Nicholasville; two sons at Ford, Ky.; a daughter at Lexington; one in California and Mrs. Rufus Dunn.

ALLEN.—Mrs. Belle Allen, aged 79 years, died at Owensville on July 9. She was born and reared in that town, the daughter of John A. Barnes and wife, and was an influential and popular woman. She had nine sisters, of whom are Mrs. Joseph McAlister and Mrs. Henrietta Miller, deceased, of this city. Her son and daughters living are: Mrs. Caleb Brooks, of Oklahoma City; Mrs. Corbett, of Paducah; Miss Malinda and Frank, of Owensville.

MOORE.—George W. Moore died at his home in this city on Wednesday morning, July 10, 1907. He was born in Fleming county, Ky., Feb. 25, 1844, hence was in his 64th year. He was married to Miss Mary J. Campbell, of Carlisle, on Nov. 22, 1872. She was the daughter of Jno. A. Campbell, who for about 40 years was Clerk of Nicholas county. After their marriage they came to our city where they have since lived. They have no children, but Mrs. Moore's nephew, Frank Hill, has lived with them and been to them as a son since he was quite young. Mr. Moore was a member of the Methodist Church and for several years had been a steward of the congregation. The funeral service was held at the Methodist Church on Friday morning, July 12th, by his pastor, Rev. H. G. Turner assisted by Rev. H. D. Clark. The body rests in Machpelah. Mr. Moore's occupation has been that of carpenter, contractor and builder and he has been conspicuous in the up-building of our city. His life work is finished. He leaves to his family, his church, his community, the rich legacy of a quiet, gentle, religious spirit, an industrious, honest and worthy life—elements that give worth to the possessor. Memories of such a life are an inspiration and sweet solace. To his wife we extend our sincere sympathy. The following friends from out of town attended the burial: Silas W. and John Campbell and their wives and Mrs. Angie Waugh, of Carlisle, and Mrs. Mag Tyler, of Winchester.

MOORE.—On last Friday, July 13, the spirit of W. T. Moore went out to meet its God. Mr. Moore had been a subject to Bright's disease for several years and five weeks ago was compelled to give up his business, growing worse until the end came. Funeral services were conducted at the Baptist Church Sunday morning by Rev. J. R. Hobbs, of Owensboro, his nephew, assisted by the pastor, Rev. T. Benton Hill, and the remains were buried in Machpelah Cemetery. Mr. Moore was born in Henry county, November 12, 1850. He was married in 1873 to Miss Sarah Elizabeth McMann, by whom he had two children, W. C. Moore, of this city, and Mrs. Finley E. Fogg, of West Liberty. She died in 1889. His second marriage was in 1892 to Miss Thomas A. Brown, who, with his two children, one grandchild, William O'Rear Fogg, seven brothers, John P., of St. Louis, Mo.; J. M., Cave Run; Henry Clay, of Louisville; I. N. and Pasco Bright, of Beaver City, Oklahoma; Claude P., of Somerset, and L. M., of Lexington, and one sister, Mrs. E. H. Mansfield, of Beaver City, Oklahoma, survive him, all of whom were with him except one brother, Pasco Bright Moore, of Beaver City, Oklahoma. The brothers present acted as his pall-bearers. Mrs.

John P. Moore, of Louisville, and Mrs. L. M. Moore, of Lexington; E. W. Brown and wife, of Louisville; Messrs. John and Pierce Hendricks, Frank Carr, general passenger agent L. & N., Lexington; Mr. C. P. Stone, traveling passenger agent L. & N., Louisville; William Merchant, of Lexington, and Mrs. R. C. Mansfield and son, of Winchester, attended the funeral service. Mr. Moore came to Mt. Sterling in 1874 as express messenger, was later local express agent and for 23 years has been chief clerk of the C. & O. in this city. He was an honored member of the order of Macabees, a Deacon of the Mt. Sterling Baptist Church and died as he had lived, a correct business man and charitable Christian gentleman. The floral offerings were beautiful and of elaborate and fitting designs, indicative of the genuine high esteem in which Mr. Moore was held in the hearts of the people. A man of enviable character, proud to do only what is just. By his death the city loses a man of principle, the church one of helpful powers, the wife and children a loving husband, father, and the poor and unfortunate the ideal charity giving friend. Though his form has passed from view, his life will continue an inspiration to those who would walk the narrow way that leadeth to God.

BIRTHS.

In this city, Tuesday, July 9, 1907, to the wife of M. F. Hinson, a son.

On Wednesday, July 10, 1907, in this city, to Jno. L. Coleman and wife, a son.—John Madison.

On July 3rd at Norton Infirmary, Louisville, to Thomas Hall and wife, of Frankfort, (nee Elizabeth Hazelrigg) daughter—Elizabeth.

To the Ladies—$1.50 and $2.00 White Oxfores, 98c.

Punch & Graves.

Big Deal.

C. T. Flanders has sold his holdings—store room and stock, residence, farm lands and mill to Charles Highland. Possession of store to be given August 1st and of farm March 1st, 1908. Mr. Flanders has made this deal on account of poor health. Mr. Highland is an active young business man and may make a great success with this paying property.

A Great Outing Trip.

Take advantage of the personally conducted trip via the L. & N. or Q. & C. and the Big Four—popular route from Cincinnati to Niagara Falls and return—Thursday, July 25, 1907, seven days' trip. $25.00 pays all expense—railroad transportation, sleeper, board, steamer berth, in fact every necessary expense from the time you enter the special sleeper at Winchester or any Kentucky point named in folders, until you return home. Mr. Wyatt, who has conducted seventeen parties to the Falls, will have personal charge, and will spare no pains to make the trip one of seven days' pleasure. Ladies and children will be looked after by lady chaperones of experience. For full particulars see ticket agents, or write Chas. Kratzberger, G. A. P. D. Big Four Route, Cincinnati, O., or J. D. Wyatt, Room 36 Ingles Building, Cincinnati, Special Agent Big Four.

Don't fail to consider this matter. No man or woman of literature or society can afford not to witness one of Nature's greatest marvels. It is a sight to picture to your children and they to generations that may come after. Consider the cost, the comfort, the knowledge to be attained and then hasten to make arrangements for this trip. Mr. Wyatt is a relation of our Wyatts, a Kentuckian and will care for the guests as if they were his own family.

White Mountain Freezers at factory cost.
Roth Bros.' Cash Grocery.

RELIGIOUS

The union service will be held at the vacant First Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening.

Five Baptist churches in Louisville are pastores and five committees are looking for successors.

Dr. E. O. Guerrant will preach at Springfield next Sabbath at 11 o'clock and at Owensville at 7:30 p. m.

Prof. Cord is conducting a meeting at Somerset, preaching each morning at 11 o'clock (except on Sunday at 10 o'clock) and each evening.

Do you really think you have a right to stay away from church because of shortcomings of some of the members? Suppose the apostles had refused to follow Christ because of Jews?

Do you propose to act from grievance instead of from duty and love of God? Do you think it is right to fly the tank because you are offended at some of the workmen? Is that what you promised when you professed faith in Christ? Can you get free from your duty because some one doesn't discharge his? Have you no responsibility—only likes and dislikes?

Besides, what will be the effect on your own spiritual life of abetting yourself from the house of God? Will you not lose the faith you have? Will not your grievances get bigger when you are no longer in touch with your accustomed means of grace? Can you afford this? Will you be deprived of what rightfully belongs to you, and what God says you need, because of what some one else has done?

In any case, it is not according to the teachings of the religion you profess to forgive injuries, to do good to them that hate you, and pray for them that despitefully use you and persecute you? Have you any reason for acting as you do? and are there not many reasons why you should act in just the opposite way?—The Lookout.

MARRIAGES.

SEE-WYATT.

On Sunday on Slate bridge Prosser See and Miss Anna Wyatt, daughter of Wm. W. Wyatt, both of Howards Mill neighborhood.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Miss Willhurst Johnson, of Paris, daughter of W. H. Johnson, formerly of this city, will be married to Virgil D. Chandler, of Miami, Fla., early in October. The bride-to-be is a sister of Harold Johnson, of this city. She is a young woman of pleasing manner and has many friends.

BEAN-PREWITT.

Mrs. Florence D. Prewitt and Mr. John E. Bean, both of Clark county, were quietly married at the home of the officiating minister, Dr. Edwin Muller, Lexington, Saturday afternoon at five o'clock. Only the necessary witnesses were present, the contracting parties wishing the marriage to be a surprise to their many friends, who wish them all joy in their new life. Mr. Bean's many friends here will wish him the greatest success.

The store with the biggest attractions.
Roth Bros.' Cash Grocery.

GOING AWAY? $3,000 insurance against death and $25 a week "while laid up" caused from travel accidents at less than 1c a day. Investigate before you start. H. G. HOFFMAN, 1-4f General Agent.

HYMN WRITER DEAD.

Prof. James McGranahan, formerly with Moody and Saukey, Passes Away.

Prof. James McGranahan, the well known hymn writer, formerly connected with Moody and Saukey, the evangelists, died at his home in Kinsman, O., July 8, aged 67. Mr. McGranahan wrote many sacred songs which are included in the gospel hymns. Among the well known from his pen are: "There Shall Be Showers of Blessing," "My Redeemer" and "Some Day We Will Be Understood." The funeral was held Friday at Kinsman.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

There will be services at Ascension Episcopal Church next Sunday July 21, at 11 o'clock a. m., Bishop Burton officiating. Everybody cordially invited.

An entertainment will be given by the Social Committee of the C. E. Society at the residence of H. D. Clark on Friday evening to the young people who have been attending.

With Mrs. Stella Cockrell as chaperone, Misses Bessie Sheld, Bess, Margaret and Dora Robinson, Fannie Miller Robertson, Elizabeth Cockrell and Messrs. Allie Lane, Chennault Cockrell, Bratton Sutton, Shields Gay, Jacob and Roger Heiden are camping on Slate this week.

On Thursday, August 8, at Comb's, there will be a conference of the officers and teachers of the Christian Church Bible Schools of this county and the ministers of the congregations. The general public is not expected nor invited. Matters of special interest are to be considered and this work can be better accomplished by those in close touch with the schools.

THE SICK.

Mrs. A. T. Wood continues quite sick at the home of her son, John C. Wood.

The infant son of Luther Ogg and wife, who has been dangerously ill, is very much improved.

Mrs. Amanda Leggett is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Powell Hall, on Harrison Avenue.

WINCHESTER.

(See Sentinel.)

City Clerk Tracy filed his receipt to the City Collector for $41,013.27 taxes for 1907.

Z. T. Conner threshed 735 bushels of wheat, an average of 31 bushels.

Architects are at work on the plans for a handsome new L. & E. Depot at this place.

When feeling blue and wanting to be diverted, pick up a Democratic exchange and read about how big the majority will be for Hager & Co. this fall.

I have endured much good natured "guying" from friends because I did not go Lexington the Fourth to see Champ Clark. There will surely be no doubt in the frank statement that I have no desire to have my throat cut.

Geo. Haggard delivered on June 25th to W. M. Robb 41 lambs, the produce of 25 ewes that weighed 3,280. He received 7 cents per pound, making a total of $236.60 or $9.46 for the produce of each ewe. The 25 ewes gave birth to 51 lambs but bad weather and hogs destroyed 10 of them.

The Winchester Water Company is having the reservoir cleared of moss and grass. This is done by dragging bags of Sulphate of Copper through water. Within thirty-six hours after treatment, the moss and water grasses die and are precipitated to the bottom. They can then be removed. This does not injure the water nor destroy the fish. The experiment was first made by a government expert here in 1904 and proved such a success that its use has become universal.

The following new Directors of the Commercial Club were unanimously elected: Matt Bean, Stuart Tracy, C. H. Bowen, Ed Smith, Wm. Duty, H. K. Taylor, Frank Murphy and Ed Grubbs.

The Colored M. E. Church building has been thoroughly repaired and will be re-opened on Sunday, July 28. Fuller notice next week.

All $1 W. B. Corsets are now on sale at Roberts & Mastin's, for 50c and 75c cash. 1-24

If you don't like the Market
Store Your Wheat
With Us.

I. F. TABB.

Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how often a change in the appearance and disposition of many women, the freshness, the charm, the brilliancy which the bloom from a peach which is rarely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change. One is the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the important pelvic organs and weaknesses which by often, come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is disarrangement of the health of the delicate pelvic organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form will be restored to the fact in the face and form. Nearly a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. It is a tonic for weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a tonic for the whole body of the native American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities. It is the general source of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers or for those broken down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mother, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and making its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating and strengthening remedy, nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter free of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Medical and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Take Care.

We wish to utter a word of warning to our brethren of the press of Kentucky. It is in regard to the Federal statutes relating to the advertisement of lotteries. The Government is making special effort to stamp out lotteries of every sort and kind. Under the Federal statutes, as interpreted by the post office authorities, any newspaper which publishes any reference to what the authorities construe to be a lottery will be barred from the mails and the publisher thereof is subject to a fine and imprisonment. The statutes seem unreasonable, and are certainly inconsistent; but it is not for the newspaper publishers to construe them, but only to obey them, and we want to warn every one that it is wise to be careful to keep out of their advertising columns, their editorial columns or their news columns any references to any occurrence which can be by any possibility be construed to be a lottery.

Postoffice Order No. 545, referring to the anti-lottery statutes, says:

"The attention of postmasters and railway postal clerks is directed to Section 499 of the Postal Laws and Regulations of 1902 (Section 1, Act of September 19, 1890), by the provisions of which newspapers or other publications of any kind, circulars and pamphlets, containing advertisements of lotteries, gift concerts or similar enterprise offering prizes dependent upon lot or chance, as used in that section, include 'guessing' or 'estimating' contests for prizes, as well as drawings and raffles of every kind, whether general or local, whether for private gain or in aid of charitable, educational or religious objects, and whether the consideration for chance be money or otherwise. Enterprises in which prizes are distributed among purchasers of merchandise in stated amounts, or among subscribers for publications, or for shares of corporate stock, through the medium of drawings or guessing contests, are lotteries within the meaning of that section. Publications, circulars, cards or pamphlets containing advertisements of such enterprises, or notices or other information of any kind relating to them, should be withdrawn from the mails and treated in accordance with Sections 573, 602 and 624 of the Postal Laws and Regulations."

Those who "always say just what they think," very often speak without thinking.

TOBACCO TRUST

MENACES TRADE OF THE WORLD.

Government Takes up its Fight to Dissolve the American Tobacco Company.

Suit was begun in the Court for the Southern District of N. Y. July 10, for dissolution of the American Tobacco Company, known as the Tobacco Trust.

The petition declares that the trust has encompassed the entire world with its tentacles and says that through the concentration of foreign interests in combination it will actually monopolize the tobacco business of the world unless relief at once is granted.

Almost fifty companies and combinations are named in the petition.

Pills! Pills! Pills!

Dr. Williams' Indian Pills will cure Biliousness, Constipation and Indigestion. It absorbs the tumors arising from the bowels, gives instant relief, and Dr. Williams' Indian Pills are prepared for the relief of the private parts. Every box is guaranteed. Sold by Thomas Kennerly, Inc. at $1.00.

Hard on the Printers.

The difference between "cemetery" and "seminary" to two proof-readers of the Government printing office means a loss of $34.25 each. Both passed the proof, a work for the Bureau of Education, in which the word "seminary" appeared as "cemetery." Part of the books had to be reprinted. The two men were compelled by Public Printer Sillings to bear the cost of correction.

Many pills come from impure blood. Can't have pure blood with faulty digestion, liver and sluggish bowels. Burdock Blood Bitters strengthens stomach, bowels and liver, and purifies the blood.

For Sale.

7 second-hand buggies, 4 surreys, 2 phaetons and 2 traps.

John M. McCormick, 51-11 Bank St., Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Historic Banner.

The historic national banner of Stars and Stripes which inspired Francis Scott Key to compose "The Star-Spangled Banner," and which floated over Fort Mifflin, Chesapeake Bay, during its bombardment by the British on the night of September 13, 1814, has been placed on exhibition at the Smithsonian Institute in Washington. Time and historic service have done much to rend the flag and it is today so delicate and worn that it has been placed on heavy drapery with the view of protecting it from the further ravages of time and wear. The flag is 28 by 30 feet and is the one which inspired Francis Scott Key to write the famous anthem.

Keep Your Nerve

It is nerve energy that runs the organs of your body. The storage battery is the nerve cells in the brain and spinal cord, and from this battery nerve force is sent out through the system of nerves. To keep the body healthy you must have plenty of nerve force; if imperfectly, the circulation is sluggish, digestion bad, appetite poor, kidneys inactive, and aches, pains and misery are the penalty.

You can keep the system strong with Dr. Miles' Nervine. It assists in generating nerve energy; it strengthens the nerves and makes the whole system strong and vigorous.

"I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Miles' Nervine to those suffering from nervous prostration, headache, and more nervousness. After several months' suffering from above diseases I tried this medicine and found immediate relief. It soothes and strengthens the nervous system, drives away gloomy and depressing thoughts and gives the sufferer renewed strength and hope. It is a superb nerve restorer."

JUDON JACOB SEEMANN, Madison, Wisconsin.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by drug dealers, who will give you the first bottle free. If it fails to cure you, you may return it for a full refund of your money.

Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

HERE'S A WEIRD TALE.

Queer Brand of Liquor Must Be Used in Tennessee.

Walter Stephenson, while out training a pair of bloodhounds near the Dikeman springs, was subjected to a unique experience, says the Nashville American. He was just finishing a long chase with his dogs and sat down on a log to rest, when he espied upon the eastern horizon a speck, which he took to be a large kite. He paid little attention to the object, and shifted his gaze temporarily to other scenes. Soon his attention was attracted to a whirling noise, and looking upward, he saw that the speck which he had a few moments before discovered in the eastern sky had approached almost directly over him, and that the object was in reality a huge balloon, part of a pattern and appearance he had never in his life before seen. He discovered that the floating mass was rapidly approaching the earth. Of a sudden, the observer says, strains of music caled to charge the spheres burst from the balloon, which circled round and round and finally landed at Kidman springs. A number of strange people were seen to emerge from the balloon, and the object was surrounded by a closely curtained with a substance that fairly glistered in the sunshine that temporarily burst through the obnoxious clouds, and all got into a flap, blowing spring, knelt by in a supplicating attitude and so remained for a minute or more. Mr. Stephenson says that while this was going on he sat quietly within speaking distance, and when the strange visitors arose to their feet and he supposed their devious exercises were over, he asked if he might be permitted to inquire who they were, and what their mission. He said that instantly a visard was lifted by one of the company and the benign face of a lady showed from underneath and said in German: "Haben sie beten?" (did you pray?) and instantly all were allowed, the ship rose, circled about for a minute or more, and was gone in a westerly direction.

Mr. Stephenson says that the incident left an impression upon him that he can never forget and while he knows that it was some human invention, it looked and the music sounded more like that of angels than of mortals.

One on the Ticket Seller.

"Step right up this way, ladies and gentlemen," called the flashy youth in the circus ticket wagon. "Step lively, please. Get your tickets—the show is just going to start. Two for you, sir."

A benevolent round-cheeked old man and his flock of children stood at the edge of the crowd, a bunch of sandy tickets in one hand and a handful of silver in the other. His pursed lips suddenly turned into a broad smile, he hesitated and then walked confidently toward the ticket man, who was counting the change. He edged his way through the crowd and addressed the fashionably dressed youth about him.

"You made a mistake in yer change, sir," he said.

The ticket man fumed up and shook his head.

"No mistakes, reverend father," said the ticket man. "You must leave the window, Rube—don't you see the sign? Move along. Make way for the others."

"But," expostulated the farmer and "No buts go with me. Get along." "Now, see here," said the Rube, seriously.

"Cut it out, Rube—yer wasting my time. No mistakes in change rectified after you leave the window. Dye hear?"

"Well, all right," said the rustic, turning to go. "I was only trying to tell ye that ye got me five dollars too much."

Danger in Single Passion.

Prince Haseba of Japan, in an interview in Spokane, said recently: "Japan's danger now lies in her property. She is in danger of making money her god. To make money one's god is a bad thing. It is a passion like the maternal instinct, like the mother's love for her young, which causes the mother to be inconsiderate and cruel to husband, servants—all the world sees her like the child."

"There is a young mother here in Spokane at whom I laughed the other day."

"She had engaged a new nurse for her baby. The nurse came to her and said:

"I don't know what the matter, madam, but the little one cries and cries. I can do nothing to quiet it."

"The mother thought a moment. Then, brightening up, she said:

"I remember now. Baby's last nurse was a southern woman. You will find the stove polish on the third shelf of the kitchen closet."

The June Bride.

The June bride frowned.

"These tomatoes," she said, "are just twice as dear as those across the street. Why is it?"

"Ah, my dear, these—"

And the grocer smiled in pity of her ignorance.

"—these are hand-picked."

She blushed.

"Of course, she said, hastily, 'I might have known. Give me a bushel, please.'"

An Inopportune Recus.

Recess—We found our husband tried to commit suicide, when we cut the rope in time."

Considerate Wife—Oh, what made you do that? Poor dear William does so hate to be taken down."

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No M. Sterling Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL No. 1 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the coming of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently.

M. F. Enright, of Hadden Avenue, Richmond, Ky., says: "Sharp aches and pains through the small of my back and across the kidneys were accompanied in my case with other unmistakable evidences of kidney disorders. My condition was so apparent to me that I searched high and low for relief, but seemed unable to find it until one lucky day a friend told me of Doan's Kidney Pills, and acting upon his advice, I got a box. They righted all the irregularities and weaknesses of the kidneys, and I am therefore more than glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

Plenty more proof like this from Mt. Sterling people. Call at F.C. Duerson's drug store and ask what customers report.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. 51-31

TOBACCO SHOW

At the Scott County Fair—Big Premiums.

The Directors of the Scott County Fair have decided to hold a big tobacco show on the first day of the Fair, Tuesday, Aug. 6th, at Georgetown, Ky. It is the purpose to have the biggest and best show of tobacco ever held in the county.

Premiums will be awarded as follows:

Grand first premium for best all tobacco, $75.

Best sample leaf; first premium, $30; second, $15.

Best sample lugs; first premium, $25; second, $10.

Best sample trash; first premium $25, second $10.

Best sample red leaf; first premium $25, second premium $10.

These premiums are open to the entire Burley district.

Conditions: All samples shown must contain five pounds of tobacco. Samples will be received up to 10 o'clock a. m., of the first day of the Fair. Persons sending packages by express should have them here not later than August 3rd, and all charges should be prepaid. All samples become the property of the Fair Association, and will be sold at public sale after the premiums have been awarded. Case all samples before shipping and attach card giving name and address.

These premiums are open to the growers of tobacco only, speculators being barred. 52-21

Is It Right?

Is it right when a man who has subscribed for and has been taking a paper notifies the P. M. that he no longer wants the paper and refuses to take it out of office? No! He should pay what he owes and quit like a man. A subscription for a paper is a small transaction, but the adjustment of the account involves as much honor and honesty as if the debt were for a house or a farm. If

Persons who "always speak all their mind," frequently have very little mind to speak.

We can trust the people that trust God.

MINERS' ETIQUETTE

STRICT RULES GOVERN IN THE WESTERN DESERT.

It is Not Considered Polite to Ask Where Any Man's Claims or Secret Water Holes Are Located.

"Never ask a man anything about his mine; he won't tell you if you do. It isn't etiquette to ask such questions of the desert."

Thus spoke J. Heinenman, late of Beatty, an old timer in Death valley and the desert.

"You see, when one miner meets another on the desert they stop, talk and pass pleasantly. One will ask the other how he's getting along and he will say 'good' or 'hard luck,' but that's about all. Neither asks for details or where the other has his claims located. If any man wants you to know he'll tell you without being asked. If he won't he'll tell you if you ask."

"The fact is that if a man has a great body of low grade ore that he must have a force of men to work and ship to the smelters he must record it. But if he has a rich spot with free gold easily handled it is not necessary, and many times one doesn't want to, or to know about it and have everybody coming to dig all around. It often leads to troubles and litigation, jumping and all that sort of thing."

"If a property is in the mountains it is more necessary to record it for it is easier found. A man can be followed in the mountains but never out on the desert. I would like to see the man who could follow me on the desert if I don't want him to. I'll give him a chase that will make him very sick of his job. Of course in such cases a claim is never left unguarded if anyone should stumble upon it by accident. In such case no session will be nine points of the law."

"This is so not only about mines but also about private secret water holes. You know some of these give so little water that once known to the general public they would be of no use to those who went to big trouble to find them, or to anyone else very soon, so they never tell. Let one who has such a place hidden find one in need he will share his water, and if necessary, he will go and bring back a supply, but the other fellow doesn't know where it comes from. That's the finder's secret."

"Of course there are public watering places, especially along the stage routes. Some wells have been dug by individuals or companies who sell water for the use of stock and have expended in this way. The water problem is indeed a serious one on the desert."

At some of the camps water is hauled by team and sells for as high as nine dollars a barrel. People who don't know think that is a terrible price, but it really leaves a very small profit for the haul and the time lost and feed of teams. Often much of the water with which one starts is used by the horses.—Los Angeles Times.

HE TOOK A REST.

But Got It in a Different Way Than His Neighbor.

As it is undoubtedly true that one man's meat may be another man's poison, so it happens sometimes that what seems like work to one person is regarded as recreation by another.

"Had a good lecture on Alaska, didn't you?" asked one of Mr. Dadd's neighbors, meeting him the day after the lecture. "To sit there peacefully as pie for two hours, hearing him rattle off the information and seeing those pictures cast on the screen was a grand rest for me, beat out with cranberry sauce as I be."

"It was a good enough talk," admitted Mr. Dadd, in a grudging tone, "but it didn't rest me any to speak of. Between having to set stock still with a chance to get it word for word two mortal hours and crane my neck looking at those views, I was pretty well worn when I got home."

"But I took the lantern out into the woodshed and by the time I'd split up a week's kindlings I felt kind of rested and calmed down."—Youth's Companion.

Crushing My Ardor.

They were seated on a bench in Central park the other night.

"Suppose, Margie, that the young man in low bow passionate tones, to the sweet young thing by his side, 'suppose I told you every time I looked at you my heart swam; suppose I told you your eyes are deep brown wells; suppose I told you the scent of your hair faintly intoxicates me; suppose (edging closer) I told you you are the sweetest, dearest little angel in all the world. What would you think?"

An answer came out of the darkness clear and cool: "I would think you had a brain storm."

The silence that followed was of the density commonly described as capable of being cut with a knife.

Bound to Be Talked About.

"Mrs. Smith's hair didn't used to be that color," said one at the club. "It used to be yellow, didn't it?"

"Yes, it did," admitted the other. "She changes the color every little while to give people something to say about her. They'd ignore her entirely if she didn't do something to attract attention, she's so insignificant."

Stockton's Tailor Shop

Strother Thomas, Manager. The only up-to-date cleaning, pressing and repairing shop in the city. Satisfaction guaranteed. A phone 225. 401c

Commissioner's Sittings

MONTGOMERY CIRCUIT COURT.

J. W. GREENE, Plaintiff,

vs. Notice of Commissioner's Sittings

A. B. RATLIFF, Adm'r, Etc., and others, Defts.

Notice is hereby given that I will begin my sittings in the above styled case, at my office in Mt. Sterling, Ky., on August 1st, 1907, and will close the same on August 1st, 1907.

All persons having claims against the estate of John Green, are notified to present the same to me, properly proven, during said term.

JOHN A. JUDY, Master Commissioner M. C. C.

Commissioner's Sittings

MONTGOMERY CIRCUIT COURT.

J. S. HURTS A. ADMR., Etc., Plaintiff,

vs. Notice of Commissioner's Sittings

HURFORD HURT, Etc., Defendants.

Notice is hereby given that I will begin my sittings in the above styled case, at my office in Mt. Sterling, Ky., on August 1st, 1907, and will close the same on August 1st, 1907.

All persons having claims against the estate of J. S. Hurt are notified to present the same to me, properly proven, during said term.

JOHN A. JUDY, Master Commissioner M. C. C.

Superior Meat Market

Because of irresistible demands, I have added to the Corner Grocery another department, that of

MEATS

and will be open to the public, Monday morning, July 15. Will handle only choice stock, kept in the largest modern refrigerator. A competent cutter always in charge.

Harry Linthecum

The Corner Grocer.

Both Phones No. 2

John M. McCormick

Carriage, Blacksmith and Paint Shop.....

High Grade Rubber Tires

a Specialty.

None but First-class Workmen Employed, All Work Guaranteed Prices Reasonable.

JOHN M. MCCORMICK

Bank Street 51 Mt. Sterling, Ky.

E. SPARKS

Ricketts-Wild Stand, Bank Street.

Machine Shops

REPAIRERS OF

Boilers, Engines, Bicycles

and all kinds of Machinery.

64-11

Tobacco Barns

We Have For Sale

70,000

Feet of

LUMBER.

Suitable for Barns and other Buildings.

S. P. Greenwade's,

BOTH PHONES 100.